PREFACE

THIS IS NOT MERELY A “BOOK”, it is a story with a Biblical background which can shake the world. The simple story told in “The Faith of Our Fathers” is one that should be read by every family in America and in Western Europe. Clergymen, Attorneys at Law, Public Officials as well as young students, will obtain a better understanding of their government and the Constitution of the United States of America.

In these days of tribulation, with enemies of God all about, one is reminded of the words of Napoleon Bonaparte when he said, “Ninety five percent of winning a war is to know your enemy”. The story of this book advances Napoleon’s advice by saying, “How can you know your enemy unless you know who YOU are?”

A clergyman once said, “love your enemies”. In a discussion with other clergymen that followed, he was asked where he derived his philosophy and he replied, “The Bible, of course”. The clergyman asking him questions then said, “I will agree with the Bible, now please tell me where the Bible says to love God’s enemies?” With this question, the first clergyman was stumped. He had no answer! In another instance, a clergyman was broadcasting a radio sermon. He was preaching that Christians should love everything (even Satan)

Upon reaching the “race” question he said, “All of the different races of people on earth are the same”. Later that day another clergyman telephoned the radio preacher and expressed interest in the sermon. He had a question. He asked about the statement that “all of the different races are the same”.

His question was “If the races are the ‘same’, then why did you say that they are ‘different’?” With this, the clergyman who gave the sermon promptly placed his telephone receiver on the hook. He had no answer!

Those who read “The Faith of Our Fathers” will no doubt be stimulated to further research and study. It is hoped and we pray that their findings will assist in the accomplishments that God’s Word has prophesied. They will have “ANSWERS”! Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.

INTRODUCTION

This is a story about a race of people who exist on the planet Earth. The EWA two persons of this race, man and woman, were placed on Earth by the Creator of the Universe approximately seven thousand four hundred years ago. They were placed in a garden or protected area named Eden. One might ask at this point, “Protected from what?”. The answer is simple but will be left for discovery from a reading of the story.

At the time the two children of the Creator were placed on Earth, there were many other peoples on the planet. These other people were known as “Enosh”, which means “created” beings. They had been on the planet Earth for hundreds of thousands of years and possibly millions of years before the two children of the Creator were placed in Eden. The “Enosh” or created beings had their origin on other planets of the Universe where they had been created. Our story will tell of their arrival on Earth and their trials and tribulations during the great catastrophes of the Earth where powerful earthquakes destroyed large areas; where lands gave way and were covered by waters of the oceans; where entire civilizations were destroyed by catastrophes beyond the imagination or comprehension of we who are on Earth in these latter days.

Our story will be brief in comparison with the aeons or ages of our Universe. Brief even in comparison with the age of our planet Earth. We will trace the history of a family. A family that belongs to the Creator of the Universe. We will know His Name, the true Name of the Creator as well as who His children are on the planet Earth. We will look into the past, both of the Earth and the Universe. We will know where we came from, where we have been and where we are going. As Jesus said, “Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free”.

Chapter 1

The Battles of Space

DURING RECENT YEARS we have been reading newspaper reports about men being rocketed into space, about men getting to the moon and about space ships that will travel to other planets of the universe. If we had read about space ships in our Bible twenty years ago or even ten years ago, we most probably would have had a difficult thing to believe. Why? Simply because we hadn't seen or known about rocket engines or guided space vehicles as we see and know about them today. We hadn't read about them in our daily newspapers but in comic strips or so-called Buck Rogers magazines. Truthfully, had we only read about them in comic strips or Buck Rogers type magazines?

Let us look at the Scriptures. The Prophet Ezekiel tells us about space ships. He tells of the wheels with the appearance as the colour of a beryl stone. He describes them as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides. They turned not as they went and they were full of eyes (lighted windows) all about. This is similar to the description of recently sighted unidentified flying objects (UFO's), which observers have described as space ships.

The Apostle John in his Book of Revelation describes a space battle. He tells of how he was taken unto the spirit and what he was shown; that he was told to return and write the things, which he had seen. The things, which are, and the things, which shall be hereafter.

In the symbolism of our Scriptures John describes the past catastrophes on the planet Earth, the great meteor or star named "Wormwood" striking Earth and a third part of the Universe being placed under darkness. He tells of Satan's fall to the Earth along with the two hundred thousand thousand (two hundred million) "Enosh" or created beings who were in Satan's army and who fell to the planet Earth with him.

Before the time of John, we turn to the writings and prophecy of Enoch, the sixth Patriarch from Adam and Eve. Enoch tells about the great and mighty space battle where the Arch-angel Michael was called upon by the Creator of the Universe to bring His armies against Lucifer the Arch-angel who had rebelled against the Creator and King of the Universe. Satan, by the name Lucifer, had once been a light bearer for the King of the Universe. He knew many mysteries of the Universe and had knowledge of many secrets of the Kingdom. He decided that he was greater than the King and attempted a revolution in order that he might take over as King of the Universe. He gathered many angels from various planets of the Universe to do battle in space against the Host commanded by the righteous Archangel Michael.

These angels who succumbed to Satan's lies and who joined his forces were known as "Enosh" who had been created on other planets of the Universe. They were good in the place where they had been created because everything the Creator made was good in the place where he created it. But in their weakness they joined Lucifer's army of rebellion and lost their first estate. Scripture describes them as the angels who had lost their first estate, or the fallen angel race "Enosh". It was these created beings who were defeated with Lucifer in the space battles against Michael. Lucifer, along with these created beings, fell from space to the planet Earth. This space battle is the same one that John writes about in Revelation.

These created beings or angels who had lost their first estate by following Lucifer in his rebellion, were now out of their proper place in the Universe. They had been cast down to a strange planet. By their stupidity and ignorance they had helped Lucifer upset the good order of the Universe and the Kingdom of the Most High Creator. They had violated the Divine laws of nature and nature's King. Their punishment was to be cast out of the Kingdom along with the evil one who led them. They were, and still are, under the power of Satan and they worship him as their king.

John in Revelation, Chapter 9, Verse 11 says: "And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Appollyon".

We can now turn to the written history of the Asiatic peoples which includes the history of the Sumerian dynasties. These historical writings record events of Asiatic peoples on Earth hundreds of thousands of years ago, long before Adam and Eve had been placed in Eden. The ancient Asiatic writings tell of an Almighty One who is above the God they worship. They also describe a later space battle where their king was again defeated and again fell to Earth.

Descriptions of this later space battle include writings which tell of Lucifer gathering more created beings from another planet. The later space battle was witnessed by the Asiatic Sumerian peoples from their location on Earth and they tell of Lucifer bringing the black kinky-haired ones to Earth with him.

These written histories also include the names of Lucifer's captains in his armies who were defeated in the battles of space. One was named Voodah and another Beezelebub. These captains were given areas of Earth to rule over and control. It was in these areas where the Captains demanded worship of Satan from the created beings whom they had brought to Earth with them. Voodah controlled the land area we know today as Africa and his name is the source of idol worshipping Voodooism. Beezelebub was given the land area we know today as Asia and we find that the name Buddha stems from this source.

There was Lucifer's mistress named Khali. She ruled in the area we know today as India and the priests of India's idol worshippers today are known as Khali priests. These people are spoken of by the prophet Ezekiel in Chapter 31 of the Book of Ezekiel.

We have now covered thousands and thousands of years through many ages of history on Earth. We see that there were created beings (Enosh) on the planet Earth before Adam and Eve. The Enosh (this name later being erroneously translated to the word 'man') were subjected to the great catastrophes of the Earth.

Scientific discoveries of archaeologists offer proof along this line. The Enosh were here on Earth at the time when the Creator said to His Arch-angel Michael, "Let us put my family on the Earth. I will plant my seed on Earth to take control from Lucifer". In reply to Michael's question, "Who shalt Thou send?" the Almighty said, "I will send my son Adam (which means 'man') and I will send my daughter Eve in order that they might have children of the flesh and thereby perpetuate my family on Earth".

Michael replied, "But they will be alone on the planet Earth where Satan resides with his angels who have lost their first estate. Satan will do all possible to destroy our family there and to bring them under his evil power".

The Almighty answered saying, "Yes, they will fall under Satan's power. I have given them the choice of good or evil to test them. I have planned it from the beginning. I will place them in a garden at Eden where Eve will be seduced by the serpent Satan and shall have a son my him. This evil son will I name Cain. I will also give them a good son from Adam's seed whom I will name Abel. They will be free to do as they choose and they will fall because of their belief in Satan's lies and his deceit. For their weakness and failure to obey my warnings about Satan I will take away their protective light and they shall be naked, yet I will save them and their children in due time. Cain will murder Abel the true son of Adam which will be their first earthly warning, yet will I give them other children who will carry on and who will do My works."

So Adam and Eve, the children of the Creator of the Universe, were taken from the spirit and were made children of the flesh. As children of the flesh they were in the image of their Father the King of the Universe, in His likeness with a reddish complexion. Today we call this race the Adamic race.

It seems mysterious to many that there is no history, no archeological evidence nor any evidence of any kind which can show the existence of this race of people on Earth earlier than the seven thousand four hundred years which are now confirmed by Scripture.

Many are unaware that Adam and Eve had a spoken language when they were placed on the planet Earth. They conversed and they wrote in that language. One of their later sons wrote it so prolifically that it was named after him. His name is Heber and the language was called Hebrew. A thorough investigation will reveal that another name was used to identify the language, that being Aramaic. It will be noted that the early Greek and Latin languages stem from the Aramaic or Hebrew, from whence we have the languages of the present day Christian nations including English, German, Spanish, Italian, French, Scandinavia, Slavic and others.

Chapter II

A Celestial Family on Earth

A N ANCIENT WORD has been used since the days of Adam and Eve to denote the evil powers of Satan on the planet Earth. This word is “sin”. In order to understand the meaning of this word we must realize that Satan is evil, the opposite from good. Satan’s powers are also evil and they are used to oppose and destroy all that is righteous and good. We should remember that Satan was on Earth before the Almighty placed His children Adam and Eve on Earth. Satan’s evil power known as “sin” was also prevalent on Earth and still remains to this day. It is then understandable that Adam and Eve were placed on a planet which was under “sin” the evil influence of Satan. Also, their flesh children born on Earth being born under the conditions of Satan’s evil influence “sin”. Our Scriptures confirm this by telling us that we are born under “sin”. This does not mean that our entry into the flesh body is an evil or sinful event, it simply means that children of the Spirit who are born into the flesh body in the family of Adam are born under these same conditions which existed when their earth parents Adam and Eve were placed in Eden. It is more warning than anything else.

The Creator of the Universe is the Alpha and the Omega. The beginning and the end. He knows all from the beginning to the end because He is King of the Universe. Nothing happens without His knowing or without His planning and permitting it to happen. Thus it was with the beginning of Adam and Eve. They were placed on Earth for a reason. The Creator sent His Prophets to Earth with Books and with instructions to write Books and Scrolls. The Books so written will be understood by the children of Adam and Eve who are on Earth in the flesh but are children of the Spirit of the Creator of the Universe.

Each of these children existed before the creation of the Earth. They existed in the Spirit and are not the “Enosh” or created beings. They are celestial beings. Brought to Earth by a process of birth into the earthly family of the Heavenly Father. When they are born into the flesh body on Earth, they have been then “born again” because they existed before in spirit as Celestial Beings. There is a great difference between the Celestial Beings born into the flesh on Earth and the “Enosh” or created beings who were brought to Earth by Satan when he was cast out of the Kingdom with his hosts who had followed him and had thereby lost their first estate. The difference between these people on Earth are very apparent, yet the simple truth seems so impossible of understanding by so many, even those of Adam’s family who are on Earth today.

After Adam and Eve had been in the garden at Eden for some time, the Creator put them out on their own with a free will to do of their own choosing. They were put under a test. They were fearful of the Earth and fainted at the gate from which they were to leave Eden. The Earth was a strange land to them, yet the Creator told them that they must go. He told Adam not to worry because He had set the time in days and years and He would save Adam after five thousand and five hundred years. After this time, one would come on Earth who would save Adam and the family, which Adam and Eve were to have. In spite of this promise from the Creator, Adam and Eve were very upset about their having been turned out into the strange land and the darkness of Satan’s power. Adam actually died of fright many times but each time he did so, the Creator brought him back to life and spoke words of encouragement to him. Both Adam and Eve remembered their bright nature when they were in Eden and they asked why the light had left them and why they were now in darkness. In reply the Creator told them that He knew when He put them in the garden, that they would fall under the power of Satan and that they had been warned about it and had done so under their own free will. He explained to Adam that Satan had once been in bright light but had deceived himself and had been cast down to Earth in darkness as punishment for his deceit and for his failure to obey the King of the Universe. Adam asked for permission to return to the garden just to take a look at it because he missed it so, but the Creator said “No, I have made you a promise and when the time I have set is past, then I will bring you back into the light and I will bring all of your righteous sons and daughters back into the garden with you”.

Adam and Eve constantly discussed their glorious times in the garden and they wept over their remembrances. Adam would beat his breast and throw himself upon the ground from bitter grief because of the darkness he was in. In his grief he would again ask the Creator why the Glory had departed from him and Eve. Adam said, “While we were in the garden we saw no darkness; we didn’t even know what darkness is. I was not hidden from Eve and she was not hidden from me. We could see each other because we were both in one bright light. Now that we have been put out of the garden we cannot see each other in the darkness. Oh Heavenly Father, how much longer will you plague us with this darkness?” The Creator. Who was Adam’s Heavenly Father answered Adam saying, “Oh Adam, even Lucifer and his hosts the Enosh were in bright light so long as he was obedient to me. When he disobeyed me I deprived him and his hosts of the light. I deprived them of that bright nature and they became dark. When he was in the heavens in the realm of light, he didn’t know of darkness. But he disobeyed me and I made him fall from Heaven to the planet Earth and I made this darkness upon him.

You also Adam had that bright light when you were obedient to me. When I heard that you had disobeyed me I deprived you also of that bright light. But I did not wish to destroy you completely. In my mercy I made you what you are. I drove you from the garden to dwell in the darkness of Earth but it is not to last forever for you. When it is over, Daylight will return. The darkness is not a punishment for you as it is for Lucifer. It is simply that I have made in the day and I have placed the sun in the day to give you light so you and your children can do the work on Earth for which I have placed you there to do. I knew that you would transgress and come out of Eden unto the Earth because I made you of the light and I put you on Earth to bring out children of light from thee. I knew that Satan, who had deceived himself, would also deceive you and your children. So I warned you about Satan and told you not to let him come near you and not to let him deceive you. If I hadn’t warned you of this beforehand, it could have been an offense on my part and you could have then blamed me for your failure. But I commanded you and I warned you, so now the blame is on you. Even so, I have made a day for you Adam and for your children who will come after you. I have made the night for them to rest from their daytime work, but little darkness now remains Adam and daylight will soon appear.”

Adam again appealed to the Creator. He wanted to be taken from the gloom of this Earth and from its darkness. He begged and begged to be taken back into the garden. Again the Creator was kind with Adam giving him more advice and explanation. The Heavenly Father told him that He would keep His promise that the darkness and gloom would pass from Adam and that He would bring Adam and all of His righteous earthborn children back into the garden where there is no darkness. The Creator explained further to Adam that all of his misery he had taken upon Himself therefore his pleadings would not save him nor free him from the power of Satan on Earth. He said that He would come to Earth in a flesh body of Adam’s family and would take upon Himself the suffering and agony that Adam was undergoing. He would, by His coming, set Adam and all of His flesh children free from the power of Satan. That He would use Adam’s children to bring the Earth out of its darkness and to bring light to the Earth. After this explanation from the Heavenly Father, Adam was yet unhappy with his earthly situation. He was very stubborn and somewhat like a child who does not want to obey its parents. He attempted suicide by throwing himself off a high mountain. Eve looked down and saw him lying in a pool of blood so she also threw herself off the mountain to join Adam in Death. In this manner they thought that they might escape from Earth and return to the garden. The Creator saw all of this and brought Adam and Eve back to their earthly life again. He told Adam that he would just have to suffer it out on Earth. He explained that so long as Adam would keep His commandments, His light and His grace would protect Adam and keep him safe. But when Adam or His children violated His commandments, then sorrow and misery would befall them in the strange land of Earth and they would suffer as a result.

There were many instances of Satan using his evil power to deceive Adam and Eve. Satan usually appeared in their presence as an angel of the Creator or in some form which would mislead them to believe that he was good rather than evil. Each time that he led them astray in his effort to destroy them the Creator saved them. These early experiences of Adam and Eve were warnings and symbolic of events to come. Once, Satan stood by while Adam, was praying and suddenly pierced Adam’s side with a knife-like sharp blade, killing him. The Creator brought Adam back to life and told him that the same thing was going to happen to Him when He would come to Earth at a day in the future. He said that His side also would be pierced and that His blood would flow from His side and that His earth body would then be a true offering on the alter for the purpose of saving Adam’s family.

As time passed, the Creator finally gave His approval for the earthly wedding of Adam to Eve. He sent Angels to direct and perform the wedding ceremony. It was not long after this that Satan continued his efforts to destroy the family of Adam and Eve. Satan seduced Eve and she had a son by him who was named Cain. Cain was evil and not acceptable to the Creator. At the time Cain was born, Eve also had a daughter who was named Luluwa. Then by Adam’s seed came the righteous Abel along with his sister. Cain murdered Abel when Cain was a little over seventeen years of age and Abel was fifteen. Adam and Eve were in mourning for Abel and could not control Cain. Cain took his sister Luluwa and joined Satan’s hosts who had lost their first estate. The Creator controlled these events and put Cain out of the household of Adam because Cain was of Satan’s seed. Cain’s children were therefor unacceptable to the Creator for the performance of His works on Earth. They were of mixed seed and a pollution of the Holy and Celestial seed.

After seven years Adam and Eve had another righteous son. He was like Abel, pure seed, and fair complexioned. His name was Seth. This son was acceptable to the Creator and it is his family line which was to multiply like the sands of the sea, yet be the least of all people on earth and be the Creator’s people on Earth. They are a Celestial people and are the Sons of the Most High God on Earth.

The generations of children from Adam and Eve began with Seth who married Abel’s sister Akliya. His eldest son was Enos but he also had many other children. Enos married and his eldest son was Cainan but he also had many other children. The family of Celestial people was being perpetuated on Earth by a divine plan laid down by the Creator of the Universe. It was growing in number in spite of all that Satan could do to destroy it. The nine Patriarchs of this family from Adam were Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech and Noah. Each of these were the eldest of their Fathers and were high priests who instructed all of their children in their generations. Seth was instructed by Adam in the worship of their Heavenly Father the Creator of the Universe. He was warned about the evil ways of Satan and had been told about Cain and the murder of Abel. Seth and all of his generations after him were told not to mix or associate with the children of Cain because they were children of Satan's seed. Adam revealed all of the hidden mysteries to Seth that God had revealed to him. He told Seth to pass the instructions on to his children and his children's children. Adam gave instructions for his burial place and for the preservation of his body during a flood that was to come. He instructed that the eldest among his children at that time should place his body on the ship that was to save a certain number of his family from that particular place those who had remained pure in their race line and who had not mixed with the children of Cain and the hosts of the fallen angel line whom Satan had brought to Earth with him ages before. Adam died on the same day of the week that he had been brought from the spirit into the flesh and the hour was the same hour of the day that he had departed from the garden.

Seth was a great leader of a happy Celestial people on Earth. He followed Adam's instructions faithfully. He gathered his children often and told them of the mysteries of the Kingdom. He instructed them to make no friendships with Cain's children and to keep themselves separate from them. Seth died and left his eldest son Enos as head of the tribe. In the meantime, Cain's children had multiplied greatly because they married often and had no morals but many children. There were children of diverse parents and the people of Cain were evil. They lived amongst murder, robberies and a manner of evil.

Enos continued the instructions of the generations of Adam's Celestial household. He also instructed them to keep their children separate from Cain's children. After Enos died his eldest son Cainan was the leader and the chief priest of his people. He also instructed them never to allow one of their children in the area of Cain's children or to make any fellowship with them whatsoever. This commandment continued and Jared became the leader and chief priest of Adam's family. Jared was very righteous and kept the commandment of his father about keeping separate from the children of Cain. He constantly instructed all of his people in this matter. One day Satan came to Jared with some Enosh of his host who deceitfully appeared as good men. Jared was suspicious because their appearance was different from that of his fair complexioned people and he did not recognize them as of his family. They were obviously strangers. Jared didn't realize that Satan was up to his old tricks. The one way he could destroy the Creator's celestial family on Earth was to seduce the children of Adam and mongrelise them with the fallen angel line of people who had lost their first estate. Some were already mongrelised with the children of Cain. They were completely under Satan's control. When Jared had been enticed with lies to accompany Satan into the land of Cain's children, he was astonished at the manner in which they lived.

Their ways were evil and they were corrupt with no morals whatsoever. Jared's good judgment made him realize the error he had committed so he prayed to the Creator for His forgiveness. As soon as he commenced his prayer, Satan and his hosts departed from his vicinity immediately. It seems that Satan and his hosts could not remain where prayer to the Heavenly Father existed. Jared was saved by his prayer and returned to his land and his people. Well knowing that he had been fooled by Satan. After many years, Jared's children began to do things on their own account without first seeking advice from their elders and without consulting Jared, the Chief priest of the tribe. As time progressed, they strayed farther and during this time, Cain's children had multiplied at an exceeding rate, and the Enosh had been instructed in all kinds of musical instruments by Satan. Their clothes were colourful with many beads and trinkets, which they wore on their person as well. The rhythms of their music were of the kind, which stimulated their emotional, and child-like nature and they joined in jungle rhythm and alcoholic drinks Satan had taught them to make. Satan was overjoyed and very pleased with his power over these people. He increased their sin amongst themselves to the point where they even hated and murdered each other, not knowing right from wrong. They took all manner of wives and many even turned to the eating of flesh. They were so blinded by Satan's power that there was absolutely no inclination of right from wrong amongst them. In fact, they were not even aware that it was Satan's plan to use them in his attempts to destroy Adam's celestial family on Earth. Satan directed them to induce Seth's children to join them at every opportunity. One day several of Jared's children of Seth's family decided that they would go from their place and join the Enosh in their wild dances and revelry which included strong drinks. Jared was very upset when he learned of his children's plans and he warned them not to do this evil thing. He told them if they did this it would be in violation of a divine law and they would no longer be called the children of God, but would then be called children of the devil. There was no return or Grace from the Heavenly Father for the violation of this commandment. Jared's children who decided to do this were a stubborn group. They paid no heed to their father's instructions and departed to join in the evil ways of the Enosh. They were immediately seduced by the daughters of Cain and were lost from the Celestial family of Adam for their transgression and mixing of the Holy seed. The departure of Adam's children from their land to the place of Cain's children continued until all but a few had gone. These few were righteous children who obeyed their father's instructions and refused to mix with Cain's children.

These few were Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech and Noah along with some of their kin. Their experiences in the future were to be in accordance with the plan of the Creator who had foretold of the fall of Adam's children to the power of Lucifer. They were to be saved from the flood that was to be brought upon that country where Adam's children were mixing with Cain's children and polluting the seed of the Holy Family, the Celestial Family of Adam. These few were to carry on the works of their Heavenly Father on Earth. They had not violated His commandment and had kept them- selves pure in their generations. Enoch was to do many great things with the children of the Celestial Family who remained. Noah was also to be the last elder in his area. Along with his few remaining righteous Children who followed the instructions of their forefathers. He and his children were to be saved from the flood that would come over that particular area and the Almighty was to use Noah's family to renew the Celestial Family of Adam's seed, which He had planted on Earth.

A Celestial family was ordained to grow like the sands of the sea, yet it would be the least in number of all people on the Earth. Today, these people fulfil all of the prophecies and the Word of the Most High, the Creator of the Universe. They are the people to whom the Book was given and it is for them to know the mysteries of the Kingdom, but it is not for the children of Cain to know. It is apparent that the other races of peoples on Earth today, in this twentieth century, do outnumber them by a ratio of six to one.

Yes, they have multiplied like the sands of the sea, yet they are the least in number of all the people on Earth. They have become the "Nations" that the Heavenly Father promised they would be. They are here on Earth during these latter days, some yet under the power of Satan and doing his work because of their lack of knowledge as to who they are.

They do not recall that the Most High placed a blindness over them which He promised to remove in the latter days so they would know who they are, and know that they are the living sons and daughters of the living God. Yes, they are continuing in their violations of their Heavenly Father's commandments and they are permitting Cain's children to live in their lands with them. Cain's children are a burden to them and a thorn in their side just as they were told they would be if they were permitted to live with Adam's family.

No matter what we do or say here, the plans of the Almighty Father will not be changed. Not by Lucifer or the children of Cain who are in power on Earth today in many lands. The fact remains that the Celestial family is here on Earth and they will do the works of their Father even though they do not know who they are. For a better work it only remains for them to know their purpose on Earth and to know who they are. This has already been revealed to them but they joined the mob in their rejection of the Word. They are certainly what the Heavenly Father foretold a stiff-necked, stubborn people. Will they ever learn??

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Chapter III

Great Pyramids

The Great Pyramids Enoch, Methuselah and Noah were known to the Enosh as great patriarchs in the land area we now know as the Middle East and Asia along with Egypt. Noah was known to the Asiatic people as “Ho Fi”, a great white God. He was recognized by them as a Celestial being. Many of the Patriarch’s family went to Egypt with their children and were known as the Hyksos Shepherd Kings in that area.

It was Enoch who had been taken into the Spirit by the Creator of the Universe and had been given the secrets and the books to write for his people on Earth. Enoch knew the mysteries of the Universe and the number of the stars in the heavens, which were visible from Earth. He and his children along with Methuselah, Noah and their children went to Egypt where they were to use the divine knowledge that had been given to their race.

These men, sons of Adam in the flesh, who had never violated the divine law and had not mixed with the children of Cain, were to build a great temple to their Heavenly Father. They were in possession of knowledge, which their family does not have today because it has been lost to them. These ancients had the mathematical knowledge of the square of the circle, which is not known to scientists, or mathematicians of this twentieth century. They had the knowledge and use of atomic power, which has recently been rediscovered by their descendents on Earth in these latter days. In fact, they had space ships available and in use, along with the power of the Creator of the Universe who had given them these things for their own use to fulfil His plans and to do His work on Earth.

One of their primary tasks before the time of the flood, which was to save Noah and his family in the land of Cain, was to build a great temple of stone. This temple was to contain the symbolic and detailed information given to Enoch and which he also wrote in his books, which were left for the Heavenly Father’s children on Earth. The temple was to be built at the exact centre of the Earth as it related to the stars in the heavens of which Enoch knew. The Temple of stone was to have a “Head of a Corner” (a pyramid) and it would contain evidence of the complete history and chronology of the race of people planted on Earth by the Creator.

It was also to contain the word of the Creator, which was to be revealed to His people in the latter days. But the prophecy indicated that the builders were to reject the “Head of the Corner” and they did. This great temple to the Most High, Creator of the Universe, was not only to contain the symbolism of the books that Enoch brought, but it would one day appear in another manner in a new land which was to be given to His people. This land would be a New Jerusalem with a great sea on the East and a great sea on the West. It would be divided by great rivers and mountains and would contain the brass and good things in the land. It would be a land of milk and honey where the box trees and the fir trees would grow. It would be a nation of His people. It would be the only nation. With the Most High as its King, lending to all and borrowing from none. The great Seal of that nation would contain the symbolism and heraldry of the temple that was built by the children of Enoch and it would appear on that nation’s money along with another symbol, the great spread wings of the Eagle. (Rev.)

Knowledge of these things was available beforehand to the Hyksos Shepherd Kings who were the descendents of Adam and Eve. It was with this knowledge that they built the great temple known as the Pyramid of Gizeh. Great stones were placed in exact alignment with the stars of the heavens. The stones cut to an exactness so perfect that even a razor blade could not show a measure of error. They were placed one upon the other with this same exactness. All of these things were accomplished by the children of Enoch, yet there is not one bit of archeological evidence of any modern day or other type construction equipment used by these Shepherd Kings in the building of their temple. Why? Because the construction equipment used by them is not known to so-called modern society. It was accomplished with atom powered space vehicles which are invisible today but which exist in the Kingdom of the Creator to this day, and forever. One day in the future He will put them to use again for His people here on Earth.

There were other areas where these same atomic powered space vehicles were used by Enoch's children. They were used in the Isles where today many historians and scientists are puzzled about certain very large stones and how they were placed in their present positions. ' But let us return to Enoch in Egypt. It was there where he had his children build a great city, the city of On, which later had its name changed to Heliopolis by the Greek Scholars who descended from Noah's family through Shem. At the city of On (Heliopolis), Enoch and his people had established great libraries and a University for the learning of their children.

The High Priest of On was always of Enoch's race of people, all of whom were an earthly priesthood known in that day as the Melchizidek priesthood, which was to have a substitute for many years and then return to Earth again in the latter days. Enoch established the various grades of the University at On, the highest grade being called the Order of Masonos. This highest Order had certain symbols to identify its members. These symbols were the Square and the Compass because Enoch's races of people were known in that day as the "builder race". It was from this highest Order of priests that Enoch selected four groups, each with a leader, to watch in the heavens for the sign that would be given to indicate the time and place of the Creator's arrival on Earth as He had foretold. Enoch knew the mysteries of the Heavens and the sign that was to be given. He had been told that the planets Mars, Jupiter and Saturn would come into alignment in the heavens, but this must happen four times, once in each quarter of the year. When this occurred once in each quarter of the year that would be the year of His coming.

The conjunction would create a great single light similar to a star in the heavens and the tail of that star would sit directly over the place on Earth where the Creator of the Universe would be born in the flesh. Enoch's four groups of priests from the Order of Masonos were stationed at four different mountainous locations east of Jerusalem and they continued their watchfulness for many years. They had been given the sign to watch for and the circumstances under which the sign would occur.

Although we have not mentioned it in our story thus far, there were ancient names used by Adam and Eve and their children. These names in their language which later became known as the Hebrew language, named after Heber one of their children used to identify the children of Adam's family and the Creator of the Universe. The ancient word "El" and the word "Elohim" were used to denote the Creator of the Universe or the King of the Universe. The word "Ra" means "Ruler" and the word "Ish" means "Prince" or "Son". The son of a King is known as a prince. Enoch used the three words together as Ish-ra-el, meaning princes ruling with their Father the King, or in other words, sons of the King or Sons of God. The actual name of the Heavenly Father in their language was spelled "YHWH" because they had no vowels in the language. This name is pronounced. "Yahweh".

The Greek scholars later translated the Scriptures into their Greek language which was a derivation from the ancient Hebrew. They translated this name "YHWH" or "Yahweh" to the Greek name "Yahshua" and "Ya-zeus". Years later when the Greek translations were further translated to the then known English language, the same name was translated from the Greek "Yahshua" or "Ya-zeus" to the English name "Jesus". It was Yahweh, the Creator of the Universe, who said that He would take on a flesh body, the same flesh body He had given to Adam and Eve. That He would come to the Earth for the purpose of performing a ritual and a sacrifice by shedding of flesh blood in the same manner as Adam had done in his early days on Earth.

This would be accomplished for the purpose of redeeming Adam and all of His earthly children from Sin, which was the earthly evil power of Satan. It would set His children completely free from Satan as He had promised Adam in the early days. He would therefore be known as the "Saviour" of His Celestial Family that He had placed on Earth where Satan and his hosts had held sway for hundreds and even thousands of thousands of years. The children of the Creator's Celestial family were told to occupy the Earth and rule over it in righteousness until the time that He would bring His kingdom to the Earth. They were continuously warned against mixing with the children of Satan and they were taught to pray "Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven.

Enoch returned to the Celestial Spirit from his flesh body life on Earth but many of his children continued their work in various places. Some were in the Isles, some were in Europe, some were in America and some were in Egypt. In the meantime, Noah and His family were doing their work in another area. They had remained in the area of Eden and the high Holy Mountain where Adam's children had been raised before they went down to mix with the children of Cain. It was in this country where Noah resided that the Creator brought on a flood, which had been promised in the days of Adam. Noah and his immediate family had been selected to bring about a renewing of the Creator's family on Earth. The story of Noah needs no repeating here but the truth should be emphasized that all of his family were of the one race the Adamic race which is the Celestial Family descended from Adam. Ham, Shem and Japheth were all of fair complexion. Ham and Japheth were later to be lost as were Jared's children, in violation of the Creator's commandment not to go out and mix with the children of Cain. Shem was elected to obey the commandment and maintain the Holy seed line, pure, without mixing with Cain's children or the Enosh of creation. Thus did Shem become a great Patriarch known to the children of Enoch who had remained in other areas such as Egypt and the Isles.

From Shem descended a righteous son named Abram. When Abram was blessed with the assignment of maintaining the pure seed line of the Creator's Celestial Family, his name was changed to Ab-RA-ham His righteousness included tithing to Shem and the Melchizidek priesthood, which Shem then led.

Abraham was told that he would be the father of many nations, that he and his seed after him would carry the blessings of Yahweh, the Most High God of his fathers and that his seed would become many nations. This family of Celestial beings was to carry out the Creator's plans to provide the family line through which He would come to Earth as for-ordained and as promised to Adam. Abraham was to raise sons and daughters who would carry on to do the things that Yahweh the Creator had planned and promised. His son Isaac had many children. It was to be through Isaac's children that the promises were to be confirmed. Isaac's son Jacob was then blessed to carry on the project, therefore he was given the ancient name used by Enoch and Adam, the name again being employed in the family line as "Israel" or "Prince", ruling with the King". Isaac's other son Esau was not blessed to carry on the pure Adamic family of Yahweh because he violated the commandment and took Canaanite wives. This mixed the Adamic seed with Satan's seed and therefore many of Satan's children today appear on the surface to be of the Adamic race, while others have the appearance of the pre-Adamic peoples with whom they mixed. They, along with the Shelahites were later to be known as Edomites.

Jacob, now known by the ancient name Israel, was to have twelve sons to carry on and multiply into many nations of Celestial people. As these sons grew, they roamed the country in their daily lives. Judah was somewhat more of a roamer than the others. He left his father's land on one occasion and went to the area occupied by the children of Cain. While there, he violated the commandment of Yahweh and took a mongrelised woman of Cain's family line. (See Chapter 38, Book of Genesis, vs. 1-11). This woman's name was Shua. She had three illegitimate sons by Judah, the first being named Er, the second Onan and the third Shelah. After some time, Judah returned to *his* father's land but not to stay. He remained for a short time and departed once more for the area occupied by the children of Cain. On this second trip he took a young woman of Israelite stock with him. His intention was to give her as a wife to his eldest mongrel son Er. She was a beautiful young woman, fair complexioned, blue-eyed, and with auburn colored hair. Her name was Tamar. Upon their arrival, Judah wasted no time in arranging the marriage. He failed to realize that the Almighty Father was in control of his every move and was using him for a specific purpose. As this marriage of a daughter of His Celestial Family to a mongrelized son from the family of Cain was a violation of the Creator's commandment, the Creator caused Er to die, leaving Tamar childless, a widow. Judah then gave her to his second son by Shua but again the Creator took a hand in the matter and destroyed Onan, leaving Tamar a childless widow for the second time. Judah did not recognize nor realize the divine intervention that was taking place in this matter to prevent the mixing of the Holy seed in this instance. Tamar knew what she must do because she was under the divine control of the Heavenly Father. She played the harlot. Hiding her face from Judah so he did not recognize her, she seduced Judah, bringing him back into his Celestial Family line and gave birth to twin boys.

These twins were named Pharez and Zarah. They were beautiful boys of pure stock. Judah and Tamar then returned to Abraham's land, taking the twins Pharez and Zarah with them. These twins were later taken to Egypt with the children of Israel (Jacob) and their geneology is recorded amongst the tribes of Israel. Yahweh intended to use their family line for His birth into a flesh body on Earth and did so. We learn from Luke that this family line of Judah by Pharez, one of the twins by Tamar, is the family by which Yahweh was born. The other twin Zarah has a geneology, which traces to the Dardic Kings of Scotland and Ireland. This, by the way is the present-day family of people known as "Anglo-Saxon". The name "Saxon" derives from the name "Isaac". The tribe of Isaac was later known as "Isaac's sons". The "I" was dropped and the name pronounced Sach's sons, later spelled Saxons. History now confirms their name as well as their eventual location as a people in Western Europe.

Another important part of the story of Judah should be told at this point. It concerns the third son of Judah by Shua the woman who was of Cain's family. The name of this son is Shelah. Shelah was of Mongrelized seed, some white from Judah and the balance of Negro and Asiatic mixture from his mother Shua (Canaanite-Adullamite.) Shelah's family was called "Shelahites" by his name. At a later time after Israel's Celestial Family had come out of Egypt on their divine Mission, the Shelahites were then known by another name Edomites. We will leave them for the moment and return to them later in our history. At that time we will see that they are known by another name.

Chapter IV

Exodus

In Egypt, the family of Jacob became known as Hebrews because that was the name of their language. They were also known as Israelites because Jacob's name had been changed to Israel with the family becoming known as the children of Israel. There has been a great deal of misinformation written and told about these people. But the truth has also been told. One day it will be understood by their descendents.

The people known as Israel in Egypt were the pure seed descendents of Adam and Eve. Their geneology is confirmed by Scripture and by history. They were of that Celestial family placed on Earth to do the works of Yahweh, the Creator of the Universe and their Heavenly Father. He placed them in Egypt where their ancestors had been before them and where Adam was buried. He was buried in the great temple, built by their ancestors who had been there with Enoch. A common error, which has been placed in writings by the children of Satan, had misled many descendents of Israel. This error is due to the misuse and mistranslation of words. For instance, the word “Jew” is used in the translated versions of our Bible as well as other writings. The word “Jew” did not exist at the time Israel’s family was in Egypt.

In the chronology of our Holy Scriptures it was not used or known until many hundreds of years after the Israelites or Hebrews (not Jews) had come out of Egypt. At the time it was used by the Israelites, it referred to a certain people who lived in Southern Judea. These people were called “Yehudi”, a Hebrew word when translated to the English language means “Jew”. To understand the true source of this word one must search the Scriptures as well as the history of those people who were known at that time by the name “Yehudi”. Let us now continue with our story of the Israelites and we will return to the Yehudi as our story moves on. We needn’t repeat the entire story of Moses here, but he was chosen by Yahweh to be the leader or Patriarch of the Creator’s people. Moses had been taken out of Egypt for his training. He married into the family of his ancestor Enoch, his wife being a tall blue-eyed daughter of one of the Hyksos Shepherd Kings. These were members of the same race of people as was Moses and the same family who had remained from the days prior to Isaac and Jacob.

The families of Israel had multiplied in Egypt and were brought out by Moses as one nation. Upon their exodus, Moses set out the thirteen tribes or families whose genealogy had been maintained by their customs from ancient days past. There were now thirteen tribes because Joseph had given his birthright to his two sons Ephraim and Manassah, splitting the twelfth tribe into two parts. This added one tribe to the original twelve making a total of thirteen tribes. Ephraim and Manassah are the House of Joseph, both being tribes of the Whole House of Israel.

While in Egypt, Joseph had married a tall, blue-eyed daughter of the High Priest of the City of On (Heliopolis). These people of On were of the same race as Joseph and were the descendents of Enoch and the Hyksos Shepherd Kings from the days prior to Isaac and Jacob. There has been a misconception on the part of many authors and translators who have described the wives of Moses and Joseph as “Egyptian women”. These women were not the so-called Egyptian of mongrel seed as were the native inhabitants at that time. They were daughters of the former Hyksos Shepherd Kings who were also called Aryans. Ancient writings describe both the wife of Moses and the wife of Joseph as tall, blue-eyed and fair complexioned women.

As Moses took the family of Israel out of Egypt, he set three tribes on the North, three on the South, three on the West and three on the East. The tribe of Levi ordained as the new priesthood was placed in the centre. Each of the twelve tribes, other than the tribe of Levi, had a standard which identified it and which derived from the ancient days of their forefathers. The standards of the twelve tribes are the twelve signs of the Zodiac. Hundreds of years after the Exodus of Israel from Egypt, these twelve standards of the Whole House of Israel were to be seen constantly behind the large banquet tables of the Viking Kings in Northern Europe. The Great Seal of the United States of America is the Seal of Manassah, one of the tribes of Israel, of the House of Joseph. This Great Seal contains the heraldry of the House of Israel.

Upon their exodus from Egypt the people again repeated the very infractions and violations of divine law, as had their ancestors under Jared when he was the Patriarch of the Creator’s Celestial Family on Earth. They immediately began worshipping idols and the golden calf along with material things in the manner of Satan and his children who were the arch-enemy of their Heavenly Father. Satan and his children were also the arch-enemy of Adam and all of his earthly children, but those who came out of Egypt were just as blind to the ways of Satan as many of their ancestors had been before them. Yet, they were under Grace from their Heavenly Father and would receive His forgiveness for anything they might do in error except for that which He had commanded them not to do, that of mixing the Holy seed or mongrelising with the children of Cain and the Enosh who had been created on Earth ages before. The violation of this commandment could not be forgiven as once the Holy seed had been polluted the act was done. It was one from which there is no return.

As the transgressions of His people continued, the Creator placed them in a desert wilderness for a period of forty years. This was for the purpose of training them by hardship and to place His laws in their hearts and minds forever. They were to learn His laws from experience. This placing of His laws of righteousness in their hearts was called “circumcision of the foreskin of the heart” (now called Baptism). After they had completed this forty years of training, they were to take back the lands that had been given to their ancestor Abraham, but which were then occupied by the children of Cain. When they were returned to their lands they were instructed by the Word of their Heavenly Father to drive all of Cain’s children from the lands and not to allow Cain’s children to live in their lands with them.

This they failed to do and the Creator became very angry with them for their constant transgression of His Word. Hundreds of years before the day that He was to come to Earth to save them, He became so angry with them that He took the name of Israel away from them and put a blindness over them so they wouldn’t know who they were. He said to them, “You are a stiff-necked stubborn people. You are violating my commandments, my statutes and my judgments. I am taking the name Israel away from you and I am placing a blindness over you so you will not know who you are. You will not be known by the name Israel forever more, but in the latter days you will be known by the Name of the One I send to redeem you.” The true Israel people of that time would therefore be known in the latter days by the Name of Him who came to redeem them. Can it be denied that His Name is Jesus Christ and the name of His people Christians? Do the white Christian nations on Earth today fulfil the prophecies given to those who were called by the name Israel at that time? If so then they must be descendents of those people.

As time progressed, the one nation of the Hebrews (not Jews) split into two nations. One was called the nation or House of Israel and the other was the nation or House of Judah. The House of Israel consisted of ten tribes and the House of Judah consisted of two tribes, Benjamin and Judah. The tribe of Levi who were ordained as the priests were dispersed throughout both nations but gradually concentrated at Jerusalem with the House of Judah. The nation of Judah (two tribes) was located in Northern Judea while the ten tribes as the nation of Israel were well North of Judea in Samaria. In Southern Judea there were a people formerly known as Shelahites and later known as Edomites. These people were not allowed in Northern Judea or in the congregation of Israel. They were called by the Israelites in their Hebrew language “Yehudi”. The name in Hebrew meant “the cursed ones”. These people were the descendents of Shelah, a mongrelised son of Judah by Shua from centuries previous when Judah had left his father’s land and had committed the adultery. They were joined with the mongrelized descendents of Esau who had taken Canaanite wives in the days of Jacob and all were called “Yehudi”. The “Yehudi” lived in Southern Judea by and to themselves. They were not permitted in Northern Judea or in Jerusalem nor to mix with the Israelites because they were descendents of Cain with whom the Israelites from Ancient times had been told not to mix. After many years, the ten tribes known as the nation of Israel were taken into captivity to the North by the Assyrians (Yehudi).

They took nearly two thirds of the nation of Judah with them leaving about one third of the population in Northern Judea and the area of Jerusalem.

Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, where Baal (Satan) was worshipped, came along later and took most of the remaining people of Judah into Babylonian captivity. He left only a few in the land, some of whom were the ancestors of Paul (Saul) the Apostle. At this time, the “Yehudi” who had been restricted to Southern Judea, invaded Northern Judea and Jerusalem, by force of numbers and their aggressiveness they simply invaded and took over. They set up the Babylonian (Satan’s) ecclesiastical system with the Babylonian Talmud as their Bible, the Babylonian debt money system and the Babylonian atheistic system of Government in the land. It was the “Yehudi” whom Jesus revealed hundreds of years later as the children of Satan. He switched their money changers from the court of the temple saying that they had stolen the Father’s House and had made it a den of thieves. He revealed their atheistic form of government as one we know today by the name of “Communism”. These were the “Yehudi” in the days of Jesus and they are the “Yehudi” today.

They are still doing the works of their father the devil and it includes the efforts of Satan to mix the Holy seed of Adam's family in order to destroy them, as Satan has tried to do since Adam and Eve came out of the garden.

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Chapter V

The Nations

The promise was made to Abraham, the father of the people known as Israel, that his children would become many nations. This they have done. (A nation is a family with a King.) When His people were brought out of Egypt they were one nation and Yahweh their Heavenly Father, the Creator of the Universe, was their King. As time progressed and they strayed farther and farther from His laws for government and for nations, they asked Him to let them have men kings over them. They did not realize the trouble they would be in for, but the Heavenly Father knew because He had planned it that way from the day He gave Adam and Eve a free choice. It was because of the men kings that they fought amongst themselves, but a promise had been made by the Creator to their father Abraham and it was to be fulfilled. The Prophets and the Scripture told them that they would be taken into captivity and that each tribe would be under punishment for a period of two thousand, five hundred and twenty years from the day of its captivity then the Creator would make them a nation. This was the "seven times" punishment prophesied in Scripture. The period of time is confirmed by history. Each of the tribes were taken into captivity by the Assyrians (Yehudi) at different times and dates which can be confirmed by Scripture.

When the prophetic "time" is applied to these dates, with a research of known history, it should not be surprising that exactly two thousand, five hundred and twenty years after the captivity of the tribe of Dan, Denmark became a nation on that precise day. Two thousand, five hundred and twenty years after the captivity of the tribe of Gad, Italy became a nation on that exact day. Two thousand, five hundred and twenty years after Isachaar was taken into captivity, Finland became a nation on that day. The present day Finnish war song uses the words, "on to war ye men of Isachaar". It was played over the radios in the United States when the Soviets attacked little Finland during the late 1930's. Again, two thousand, five hundred and twenty years from the date that the tribe of Ephraim was taken into Assyrian captivity, the Union Jack was approved by England and England became an empire on the exact day. When the prophetic time of Daniel is added to the prophetic time of the Israel nation, Judah, the years add perfectly for Germany, which became a nation on the exact day from the captivity of the tribe of Judah. With Ephraim, the Scriptures say that Ephraim shall be a nation and a company of nations and the British Commonwealth is exactly that. And so on for the other tribes of Israel. But not to be forgotten is the tribe of Manassah. Two thousand five hundred and twenty years from the day Manassah was taken into Assyrian captivity, is the 4th of July 1776. To top that, the Great Seal of the United States is the Seal of Manassah. It contains the great pyramid, as well as the spread wings of the great Eagle. Manassah was to be a great people; a gathering of the nations of Yahweh's Kingdom.

Today we should question ourselves. Are we keeping the Heavenly Father's commandment that He gave to Adam and the generations of our forefathers? Are we keeping His laws for our nation and its government? Are we allowing Cain's children in our land to do the works of their father rather than for us to do the works of our Father? Have we allowed Cain's children into our land and our government to bring Satan's form of government.

Communism, to the fore? We see the blindness of supposedly intelligent men in high places when they speak or write that our forefathers came to America because of religious persecution. This is simply not true. It is one of Satan's lies and these blind men repeat Satan's lie so many times that even they themselves begin to believe it as the truth. There is not one official document of our government to support such a statement as the one we hear about religious persecution. Our forefathers wrote in the official documents of this nation, from the Mayflower Compact through the Charters of all of the thirteen colonies and into the Articles of Confederation, that they came here to advance the Faith of Jesus Christ and to form a GOVERNMENT under His Laws, the King of Kings and the God of Hosts, the Creator of the Universe. They came to this land, the new Jerusalem that had been promised to God's Israel and which had been described perfectly in the Scriptures. They came with the permission and blessings of the Royal House of their former land and with the permission and blessings of its government. Men from the Isles had come to this land many years before Lief Erickson who came before Columbus.

These men of Ireland came by sea and travelled by land from Labrador to Florida. They wrote that God told them to return to the Isles because the land was not yet ready for them. When the land was to be ready, the Creator kept His promise and provided the divine circumstances to fulfill His Word. He brought His children to the new land that He had promised them when they were in the old Jerusalem. At that time, He said, "Of this Jerusalem I will make a land of abomination and desolation. I will give thee a new Jerusalem, a new land. One that will have a great sea on the East and a great sea on the West. It will be a land of milk and honey, where the box trees and the fir trees will grow. Great rivers will divide it and mountains and it will have the brass in the land. It will be a gathering of my children from their other nations and will lend to all and borrow from none. It will be the only nation with Yahweh, the Most High God of your Fathers, Creator of the Universe as your King."

Yes, our forefathers came to this land with their Book, which contained His word, and they came to form a government under His laws. This they said, this they wrote, and this they did. They formed thirteen colonies as they were from thirteen tribes. They were and are the only nation with the Most High Yahweh as their King. They wrote on their money "in God We Trust".

They are a gathering of His people from the other nations of His people. They have two things in common, all being of the Adamic race and all being Christians. In spite of all the lies of Satan and his children, these sovereign States of the great nation of His Kingdom were formed by men of the Adamic race and their women were mighty in their tasks. This nation and this government were founded by white men and white women who were Christians. They fought their way across the wilderness and built a great nation. In the name of the God of our Fathers, this nation will remain a white man's land and a white man's government. Until the Arch-angel calls the end of time.

Chapter VI

The Union

AS THE NEW NATION OF ADAM'S FAMILY DEVELOPED, they formed a Treaty of Friendship between their thirteen separate States. This Treaty of Friendship was a written contract of government taken from the Holy Book that they had brought with them to their new Jerusalem. It was written in accordance with the laws for government and had been given to their forefathers by Moses on the Mount. The law had been placed in their hearts and in their minds forever during the forty years in the wilderness upon their exodus from Egypt. These same laws had since become known to the world as "Anglo-Saxon Law". The Treaty they wrote in this land is known as the "Articles of Confederation", which is the source of the great Constitution of these United States of America. The Articles of Confederation were adopted to be in effect "Forever". They are perpetual, never to be repealed nor amended. Subsequently, the thirteen States adopted another Treaty amongst themselves to be in effect "forever", never to be repealed nor amended. This is known as the Ordinance of the Territories. This Treaty was adopted in order that new States entering the Union from territory immediately adjacent to any original State would have the same rights and conditions of government as the original States had under the Treaty of Friendship known as the Articles of Confederation.

It seems appropriate at this point to reflect upon present day activities of the Federal Congress and the Federal Government. Let us examine the acts of the Federal Congress, which brought the Islands of Hawaii and the Territory of Alaska into the Union. The only Law or lawful basis for such acts is the Organic Law referred to a few moments ago the Ordinance of the Territories, along with the articles of Confederation. These were adopted to be in effect "forever", therefore not even Congress may repeal or amend them. To select the specific law, the Ordinance of the Territories would be the specific Law in question as it pertains to the entry of new States into the Union. But these Ordinances were made for new States "adjacent" to existing States of the Union. They did not provide for distant lands being brought into the Union, because it is a Union of States OF AMERICA. Either Hawaii or Alaska are "adjacent" to existing States of the Union. It can be questioned therefore as to whether or not such acts of the Federal Congress are lawful. If nothing else, they are certainly a dangerous precedent.

The economic conditions of the Union of States under the Articles of Confederation were also in accordance with the Holy Book. There was no usury in the system. Colonial script was used for the distribution of goods and physical wealth. The issue of the script money was controlled by the Assembly or Legislative body of each Colony or State and was paid into circulation interest free for services obtained by the government. It was therefore acceptable in payment of taxes because the purpose of taxes is for the government to obtain services from the people. The issue of money was interest free, not loaned into circulation as it is today. The Colonies as well as the States of the Union were free from debt and their economy was prospering under their debt free money system. In fact, it was not the English stamp tax that caused the explosion and the Boston Tea Party as much as it was that the English demanded that the taxes be paid in English money. The Colonists had no English money with which to pay the tax and the only way they could have paid the taxes in English money would have been to borrow money from the private bankers of England or Europe, thereby creating a debt with interest to pay. The Colonists knew that the children of Cain were the money lenders in control of the banks of England and Europe.

They also knew that these whom Jesus had revealed as the children of Satan wanted to control the wealth of this new nation by their control of its money. Mr. Benjamin Franklin knew this better than anyone at that time. He knew that his nation would have serious trouble if it permitted Cain's children to become citizens in the new nation. He wanted the people not to permit the children of Cain to be citizens.

After the conflict with the mother country, conditions in the new land were slightly chaotic. Tempers were hot and local rule was guarded jealously. Having gained their independence as sovereign States, the granting of any governmental power to anyone outside their immediate control was not favourably looked upon. In fact, it was not to be. The Union under the Treaty of Friendship known as the Articles of Confederation was not too successful from the viewpoint of a “national” or “federal” government. The Congress could not raise funds for operation of the central government, in fact, all the congress could do was convene and adjourn. It had been given no power by the sovereign States. The States simply refused to give any power to a central or federal government under any circumstances. Intelligent leaders of the new nation realized that some form of compromise must be made in this area of government. They knew that the Union of sovereign states under the Articles of Confederation must be made more perfect.

Yet, the Articles were a contract of government between the States, which had been adopted to be in effect forever, never to be repealed, altered or amended. They knew that the Union of the sovereign States must be made “more perfect”, yet they also knew that the States would not accept a “more perfect” form of government unless the powers granted to a central or federal government were limited in writing. They wanted a written contract. This they attempted to obtain and when one reads the Preamble of the Constitution it is very clear that the intention was not to form a “new” government, but merely a “more perfect” one. Not a “new” Union separate from the Union already formed under the Articles of Confederation, but simply “We, the people, In Order to Form a More Perfect Union. A “new” Union would have been impossible because of the perpetuity or permanency of the original Union. The Constitution was drafted from the very wording and phrases of the Articles of Confederation, which has its source, the Holy Bible. But when it came time for the individual sovereign States to ratify the new Constitution, they would not do so until the first Ten Amendments known as the Bill of Rights had been made a part of the agreement.

When the Congress was discussing the first Amendment to this Bill of Rights, some interesting records of the committee hearings were made. It was made clear that this Amendment was not to be construed as to eliminate the Christian religion, which was the only religion, involved. The Laws of the Colonies and the early States made it clear that one must be a Christian in order to hold office in the government. There was to be no question about this Amendment permitting freedom ‘in’ religion, rather than freedom ‘from’ religion. It was stated at this time, “These people are a religious people. If this Amendment is to be construed as one to deny them their national religion, which is Christianity, then we would rather continue fighting as we have been in this past conflict.” No other religion other than Christianity was in the minds of those who drafted the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The purpose described was not one of religion per se, but of the various sects or forms of worship within the Christian religion. The purpose of the First Amendment was to prevent any Federal government from prescribing any one sect or form of worship within the Christian religion.

The Ninth and Tenth Amendments to the Bill of Rights are of vital concern to the protection of the Constitution as a whole and to the Union of Sovereign States. These two Amendments are clearly in accord with the demands of the States at that time. They would not enter into any agreement for any form of “federal” or “central” government unless its powers were limited. The Ninth Amendment made it clear that each power granted to the Federal government would be specified and distinctly enumerated in the Constitution and that just because there was no enumeration for the States and the people it did not mean that the States and people did not have them, as it did mean that the federal government did not have them. The Tenth Amendment carried this point to a further clarification. It made clear that the Constitution needs no interpretation. The central or Federal government is one of limited powers. It has absolutely NO ‘rights’. Only the States and the people have ‘rights’. And the ONLY powers that the central or federal government has are those, which are specifically enumerated IN THE CONSTITUTION. If the Constitution itself does not enumerate a power specifically as one given to the federal government, which includes all of the branches of the federal government, then the federal government does NOT have it. The Constitution is simple in its understanding. We hear some persons, even lawyers; say that the Supreme Court interprets the Constitution. How wrong can they be? If the Supreme Court has the power to ‘interpret’ the Constitution, the only place it could get that enumerated power would be from the Constitution itself. The Constitution is the means by which the States created the Supreme Court as a part of the Federal Government. Can we find any such power granted to the Supreme Court in the Constitution? Absolutely not. Then the Tenth Amendment becomes clear. If the Constitution itself does not specifically enumerate a power, then the Supreme Court does NOT HAVE IT. This needs no interpretation. If the Constitution does not give a power to the Supreme Court or any branch of the Federal Government, that power is then retained by the States or the people. So, we see that the Supreme Court does NOT have the power to “interpret” the Constitution. We see that the States gave the Supreme Court the power “to rule on cases at law”. This simply means that a “case at law” must be brought before the Court. A “case at law” is an issue where one has questioned a “law” or an act of a legislature. The Supreme Court may not take a “case at law” which has not been brought before the lower Courts unless an Ambassador, Public Minister or a State ‘ is involved, all in the “case”. It only has “original” jurisdiction in such cases, but “appellate” jurisdiction in others.

A ruling of the Court does NOT become a law because the courts may not make a law. Only a legislature may make a Law and even that power is limited. The States gave the federal legislature the power to enact legislation, which is “in accordance with and in pursuance of the Constitution”. If the federal legislature enacts legislation, which is in violation of the Constitution, that legislation is NOT law. It is VOID from the beginning. It is void from the beginning because neither the States nor the people have given the federal legislature power to enact legislation, which is not in accordance with, and in pursuance of the Constitution and this means ALL of the Constitution including the Amendments. The Constitution itself prescribes the means or method by which it can be amended. It is a contract between the States and it cannot be amended by the Courts nor by the federal legislature or by the federal government. It must be amended only by the agreement of the States.

We can see clearly that the States created the federal government. The federal government has no voters. Only the States have voters. The States and ONLY the States have the right of qualifying their voters. Each State, by its own method, determines what a citizen of that State must do to qualify as a voter of that State. The federal government has no control over this whatsoever, not even by legislation, because legislation may not amend the Constitution. The present enactments of legislation by the federal Congress along these lines under the fifth section of the Fourteenth Amendment is questionable because the States never legally ratified the Fourteenth Amendment. The same principle applies to recent activities of the federal Courts. The States created the federal Judiciary and that Judiciary has no power to make laws. Rulings of Courts only constitute the law for the specific case upon which the Court has ruled. They do not constitute the law for the land or for anything other than the specific case at law upon which the Court ruled.

It should be emphasized here that all officials of government, whether it be Federal, State or Municipal, must take an oath to uphold, defend, and protect the Constitution of the United States against all enemies whomsoever, both foreign or domestic. They must take this oath freely, without mental reservation.

When their activities violate the Constitution, it is a violation of their Oath of Office and such violation is a felony a crime, under the laws of this nation. The laws of this nation also require a citizen to uphold, defend and protect the Constitution and our Republican form of government WITHOUT MENTAL RESERVATION. This is a lawful requirement for citizenship. Therefore, any citizen who takes another oath, even though it might be on what he calls a religious “day of atonement”, which provides for a mental reservation on any other oath he takes, that citizen is subject to loss of citizenship. There are certain so-called “international” organizations in which U.S. citizens take part. These organizations call meetings in foreign lands and members vote on matters of political, economic, and governmental problems.

Citizens of the United States who attend such meetings and vote in these organizations are subject to loss of their United States citizenship and deportation in accordance with provisions of the United States Code. There are also meetings in the United States where bonds are sold for the support of a foreign State. This also is in violation of the United States Code and is a felony, particularly if any of the funds are used to support the military forces of the foreign State in any way. Yet, we see Senators, Congressmen and many civic officials of our Federal, State and local governments participating in the crime.

In these latter days when Satan and his children have invaded the land of Israel again and have brought Satan's form of government with them, we must turn to our Heavenly Father and pray for His protection. But we must do more than pray. We must oppose Satan and his evil ways with every power that God has given His children. The philosophy of Communism, which is Satan's form of government, is being imposed upon God's Israel in their land. Communism worships Satan but recognizes no Supreme Being. It is atheistic and believes that the created are above the Creator. Those who believe that the federal government is above the States, which created it, have accepted Satan's communistic philosophy that the created is above the Creator. The battle of Armageddon will be won with knowledge, as Jesus said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Chapter VII

The Daylight Hours

THE CHILDREN OF ADAM'S FAMILY became known by many names other than their former name Israel. They also remained blind as to who they are, in accordance with God's prophecy. They settled the wilderness known as Western Europe and occupied lands that the Creator had given to them where they were to become many nations.

The Isles were owned by the Royal family of the tribe of Judah. The tin mines of the Isles were owned by Joseph of Arimathea who travelled between the Isles and Judea during the days that Yahweh was on Earth. Yahweh also travelled to the Isles and there directed certain disciples in the building of places of worship for His people. Many of the people in the Isles had been there from the days of Enoch. The University and Priesthood of Enoch's day was used for these purposes by Yahweh. It was then known as the University of the Druids. Another of their Universities was in a land, which was later known as Spain and where Pontius Pilate had been educated.

The Kings of the Island nation were always to be of the House of Judah, (not to be confused with the Yehudi). This was a promise made by the Creator at the time He let His children have men kings over them. At that time, He said, "all of the King line of the nations I give thee shall be of the House of Judah". King Edward 1, a King of the Island people, was aware of his responsibilities in keeping the commandment of his ancient fathers, from Adam to his day. He knew that some of the Yehudi who were Cain's children had come to the Isles. They were causing trouble in his land with Adam's children. In the year 1275, King Edward I issued a law that prohibited the Yehudi from continuing their money lending operations in his Realm. He further required them to live separately from Christians and identify themselves by wearing a yellow badge from the time they reached the age of twelve years. These restrictions existed for fifteen years until the activities of the Yehudi became so revolutionary and troublesome that the King banished them from the Isles completely. The Yehudi posed a difficult problem because they had stolen the ancient names of the Israel people when they invaded Jerusalem many centuries before. While the name of the Jude and Jutes of Scotland had derived from the tribal name of Judah and the later used name "German" also derives from the tribal name "Judah", many were and still are confused by the Yehudi because of their stolen names. Kings of other nations of Adam's family formerly known as Israel who were on the mainland of Europe, followed the King of the Island nation in banishing the Yehudi from their nations. They knew the commandment given by the Creator of the Universe, which had been passed on by Adam and the Patriarchs that they were not to allow Cain's children to live in their lands with them. They knew that their actions were in accordance with divine law and necessary to the safety, well-being and survival of their people.

As the Yehudi were banished from one Christian nation after another, they appealed to their leaders in Constantinople. Their leaders advised them to adopt their age-old tactics which had been taught them from the days when their father Satan had directed them against Adam and his family. They were told to pretend that they were Christians, make their sons Christian Priests, physicians and attorneys at law. They were told to infiltrate and enter all of the professions of Adam's family. After they had infiltrated these positions they were to divide and destroy from within. These had been the tactics employed at Jerusalem centuries before when they had invaded the land of Adam's children there. In each nation that they invaded, they were eventually discovered by their activities. Jesus warned His children about the Yehudi when He said, "By their works ye shall know them". He called them liars and hypocrites, telling that they would speak good deeds but do evil deeds. Wherever they congregated they attempted destruction of the good things and the Blessings given to Adam's family. Their activities always aimed at bringing Satan's form of government to the nation, which allowed them within its borders. It was for good reason that their banishment from the Island Nation was followed by banishment from other Christian nations of the Adamic people. The leaders of the Yehudi eventually gained control of the money and wealth of most nations they had invaded. This was simple because of their nefarious scheming and behind-the-scene political activities. One with no morals and no conscience to bar evil deeds could deal easily with Adam's children who believed everyone to be honest and forthright as these characteristics were inborn in them. But this is where they erred in dealing with Satan's children.

The leaders of Satan's children had gathered in principally two areas known as Holland and Switzerland and they operated from these areas in their usury and financial manipulations. It was by financial power that the leaders of Yehudi gained re-entry into the Island nation. They also employed infiltration tactics and the divide and conquer method amongst different sects of the Faith common to Adam's family. With a similar infiltration the Yehudi regained entry into other European nations and they always cooperated with each other on an international basis. It was in this manner that they infiltrated Russia and then became the spies and agents for the hordes of Ghengis Khan the Mongol. They were the advance guard for the Mongol invasion of the lands occupied by the Celestial family of Adam and Eve. The Yehudi had preceded the Mongol hordes and had become the merchants, the pawnbrokers and the money changers as well as the disrupting revolutionary leaders who created confusion in the internal areas. They were destroyers from within.

Time passed and the Island nation fell to the complete control of the children of Cain. The banking and money system was taken over completely by the Yehudi and it was under these conditions that the darkness of evening came over Adam's family. We approach the dark evening hours for the nations of Adam's household under such conditions with Cain's children having invaded the nations and having obtained control of the banking and money systems. Yet, we know that our Heavenly Father made a promise that the daylight would follow the darkness. The evening is slowly approaching as many children of Adam leave their original nations and come across the seas to the New Jerusalem. The new nation of God's Kingdom and His people is to be founded during the evening hours with darkness slowly approaching. It will flounder in darkness for the period of time ordained by the Creator of the Universe. Then there will be the light of dawn and a new day.

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Chapter VIII

The Hours of Darkness

THERE WAS YET SOME DAYLIGHT in the long evening when our forefathers came to their new land. They were free from the children of Cain at least for a time. During this period of freedom from Cain's children, they originated and developed the foundation for their great Republic of God's Kingdom. The nation was born which was to have no man-king but would have the Creator of the Universe, Yahweh as its King. It brought His people back to the conditions of government which He had given them upon their exodus from Egypt but which they had not maintained. They were again to use His laws for their nation and for their government. But alas, the evening was to turn into night. The darkness was coming upon them.

The first great leader of their nation was given a vision of the darkness. George Washington was given a vision of the dark clouds of Satan's children coming over the land. There was fighting and bloodshed in all of the towns and cities. The land was to be invaded by Cain's children as in days before, but the children of Adam were to awaken from their sleep. The dark clouds broke apart and a red light was shining. Then a great white light shined through from above the darkness. There was a great cleansing of the land with all of Cain's children being driven from the land. Then came the dawn, clear and crisp, with only Adam's children dwelling in peace in their own land.

Yahweh planned that sufficient daylight would remain in the evening hours for the establishment of His laws in the new land of His people. But Satan and his children were not to be denied. They were to follow and invade the land as they had always done before. Yahweh had set the time in days and years for the suffering of Adam's family because of their violations of His laws. Many years were yet to be counted and Adam's children had more trials and tribulations to undergo before their final awakening and complete obedience to His laws for their nation and their government. These trials and tribulations were to come over their new nation during the hours of darkness.

Leaders of the nation in its infancy had warned the people about permitting the Yehudi in their land. One named Benjamin Franklin owned a printing plant, which distributed leaflets telling the people who the Yehudi were. His printed tracts advised against ever permitting the Yehudi to become citizens in the new nation. Yet the Yehudi came to the new land in greater numbers. As usual, they remained to themselves and continually plotted against Adam's children and their Yahweh. They became storekeepers, lenders of money, pawn-brokers and termitees in Government just as they had always done in the other nations of Adam's children. They became destroyers of the Creator's righteous form of government. Their leaders remained in Holland and Switzerland but planned and directed their activities on an international basis. They were never loyal to a nation, which took them in. They sent their hirelings to the new nation and with their international money power they seduced many of Adam's children who were blind as to their origin. These blind children of Adam worshipped Satan's money and were subject to his evil power "sin". As such, the Yehudi easily handled them. They could be used to divide Adam's children amongst themselves and they deceived the righteous by “fronting” for the Yehudi who remained behind the scenes.

Even the “elect” would be deceived by them in the latter days. There were some blind preachers of Adam’s children who believed Satan’s lies and who believed that Yahweh was of the Yehudi. There was nothing in their. Book to prove this, yet they believed the Yehudi of whom, they had been warned by Yahweh Himself. They had forgotten the Word. They knew not who they were. They could not hear Saul who told them clearly “If ye be Yahweh’s, then ye be Abraham’s seed and heirs according to the promise”. Heirs to the Kingdom yet some would give up their birthright. They were easy prey for the Yehudi. At one time the leader of the Yehudi went so far as to divide the new nation into two large land areas.

He issued written deeds to these two parts of the land, giving one of his sons a deed to the Northern half and the second son a deed to the Southern half. He wrote these deeds in Holland and arranged to send them to the new land by way of the Island nation where he had spies and agents. In order to better divide the people of the two large land areas, he paid one of his hirelings named Hyman Solomon to develop a slave trade. Solomon brought the Enosh from Africa to the Southern part of the nation. In the meantime a leader of Adam’s family in an older nation, Czar Nicholas, learned from the Ides of the attempt by the Yehudi chief to divide the new nation. He immediately contacted the Yehudi chief in Holland and ordered him to cease and desist in the effort. He sent one of his fleets to the coast of the new nation and another fleet to the coast off Vera Cruz, threatening to attack if the Yehudi chief continued his activity of dividing the new nation. The activity was stopped immediately because the Yehudi always feared those of Adam’s children who were aware of their methods. They feared the anger of Adam’s righteous leaders and they were always afraid of violence. They constantly cried “brotherly love” to cover up their deceit and evil. They cried “brotherly love”, while well knowing that they were not the brothers of Adam’s children because they knew who their father was as it was revealed by Yahweh. They knew that their father was Satan and that Adam’s children were from a different Father. Brothers must be from the same father. (See John 8, vs. 39-47).

The leaders of Cain’s children had often said, “Give me control of a nation’s money and I care not who makes its laws”. So, in the early hours of darkness, Satan’s children used their old tricks to gain control of the money in the new nation. The open-minded honest but blind children of Adam were completely at their mercy, incapable of stopping it. Adam’s children did not know who they were so how could they be expected to know their enemy? In due time a great leader of Adam’s family became head of the nation. He knew how to regain control of the Nation’s money from Yehudi. He also knew that the Enosh must be returned to Africa or the new nation would be in deep trouble. The leaders of the Yehudi were forced into action. They could always upset Adam’s family with their control of money and their spies and paid agents who they had placed in high places within the governments of most nations. It was simple for them to develop conditions that would get Adam’s children fighting amongst themselves.

This would always relieve the mounting pressure against Satan and his children at a time when Adam’s children began to awaken and recognize the evils and deceit of the Yehudi. Jesus knew these tricks because He was Yahweh, who knew all, from the beginning to the end. He warned Adam’s children who were brothers of the flesh. He knew that Satan would cause them to fight amongst themselves by deceitful means, causing brother to fight brother. Therefore He said to them “Love thy brother.” Jesus also knew that brothers are from the same father and that all of Adam’s children, being of a Celestial family, were Sons of the Father from the beginning. They were not of the “creations” which had created the Enosh nor were they of the unholy mixture of Enosh seed from which the Yehudi had descended. Jesus said to His brethren, “Ye were mine before the creation of the Earth and ye are mine in the Earth”. The Adamic race descends from Adam, they are children of the spirit, born into the flesh and being “born again” when they are born into the, flesh body on Earth. In the same manner Jesus identified the Yehudi as the children of Satan. He said to them “Ye are not the children of Abraham (Israel), for if ye were Abraham’s children ye would do the works of Abraham. I am from my Father and ye are from your father and your father is the devil (Satan). He was a Bar and a murderer from the beginning and your father's works will ye do".

But Adam's children in their blindness did not understand the warnings of their Heavenly Father who had come to Earth as He had promised Adam, to save His children and to set them free from Satan's power on Earth. They did not even understand what He meant when He said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free".

The Yehudi leaders arranged for the murder of the great leader of Adam's family. They created a war between Adam's children, the Northern brethren against the Southern brethren. It was essential that they destroy the work which they knew would be accomplished A by the great leader of the new nation. If this great leader were permitted to continue in his wisdom, He would destroy the plans of Satan's children and they knew it. He was already in the process of returning the nation to their Father's laws of economics and money. He had already made it clear that the medium of exchange called money should be put into circulation interest-free and without creating a debt. Satan's system was to give the credit to the Yehudi and then let them lend it into circulation, creating a debt and the collection of interest.

The physical wealth of the nation was the collateral for the issuance of government bonds or simply government I.O.U.'s, a promise to pay, in the future, with interest, nothing more. The great leader knew that if these I.O.U.'s were good enough collateral for the borrowing of private Yehudi banker's credit and then lending their bank money to the people, the same collateral was good enough to issue or pay the money into circulation interest-free in the first place. In fact, this was the intention of the founding fathers and provision was made for it in the great Constitution they had written. The amount of money in circulation could be controlled by taxation, which is simply a means of obtaining services from the people by the government. With such a system, the balance between physical production and purchasing power could be maintained in balance and the value of the money would be stable.

The Yehudi could not permit this even though the Constitution did provide for it. As the great leader actually began to put his policies into practice, the Yehudi became desperate. They not only wished to lend money within the nation, they wanted to maintain the control of money on an international basis and lend to nations. In order to do this, it was essential that they control the money of this great new nation and its great wealth. They knew the capabilities of Adam's children in bringing wealth out of the Earth and obtaining the blessings of the Earth as promised to them by their Heavenly Father. Satan was not stupid by any means.

After Lincoln had implemented his fiscal policy of issuing money interest-free instead of printing I.O.U.'S and borrowing the Yehudi's private money, the hired stooges of the Yehudi attempted to use the Courts to stop him, but in this they failed. The Courts upheld the lawful method but this did not stop the Yehudi. They knew that a fight between brethren could be instigated and they began their work toward that end immediately. This would help them lend money to finance the war. They could then murder the leader and get Adam's children back into line because of the debts incurred to fight the war. It was a time consuming process but completely planned to the last detail.

The great leader of the nation posed another problem for the Yehudi. He had made arrangements for the money necessary to transport all of the Enosh back to Africa. He had made it clear that the Enosh who were in the land as slaves and who had been brought to the new nation in violation of its laws by the Yehudi and their paid agents, were to be returned to their native land in Africa. This would upset the age-old plan of Satan to destroy Adam's family by mixing them with the Enosh and polluting the Holy seed. This was the work of Satan and his children would make every effort to do his work along this line. It was to the best interests of the Yehudi leaders in Holland that the Northern part of the new nation be victorious in the war between the brethren of Adam's family. They did all in their power to see that their well-laid plans ended successfully along this line. They had dependable agents in high places of the nation's national government. Most of the "front men" were of the North where Yehudi had been most active.

The brethren of the South were better prepared to resist Satan's children because of their way of life and their knowledge of the Word left to them by their Heavenly Father. It was apparent to the Yehudi that the men of the South were not as easily fooled as their brethren of the North. For this, the South has never been forgiven by Satan's children and they vowed to destroy Adam's children in the South no matter how long it takes or by what means they must use. They will destroy the Union if necessary, as it means nothing to them anyway. It wasn't their Union in the first place. It would be easy for them to send some of their kind to the South to act as spies and agents for them there. This they did.

The war was successfully started and brethren were fighting brethren. While brothers of Adam's family destroyed each other, the Yehudi sat back pulling the strings and lending the money to both sides. With their control of the press and mass means of communications, it was easy to convince the people that slavery was the main issue, when in reality the plan was to destroy the great leader of the nation, whose plans could continue unless a war were brought about. The plans of this leader and their future possibilities were feared by the Yehudi. The North was to be victorious with the help of the Yehudi and their paid agents who feared the sons of Adam in the South. The men of the South knew their Father's Word and were not as easily deceived.

The Yehudi leaders knew that these Southern men would be a constant source of trouble to their plans unless they were put in an economic position from which they could not recover quickly, if ever. If these men were to become strong in the new nation's government, the Yehudi would lose everything they had worked for since Satan began his program of destruction for Adam's family. They would be banished from the land of Adam's children for good. The sons of Satan recognized the sons of God and feared them, but the sons of God did not recognize the sons of Satan who were doing all in their power to destroy their good works. The sons of Satan knew that they must bring about a mongrelization with the Enosh to effectively destroy the sons of God. Their land must be taken from them and their women folk subjected to the heathen. The war was more for this purpose than anything else although many other useful purposes of the Yehudi were served at the same time.

After the war the Yehudi sent their paid agents and spies into the South. These scalawags and carpetbaggers received their instructions from the agents of the Yehudi who were in high places within the national government. A Yehudi stooge was used to employ the national armed forces in the plan for the destruction of the South. These were the conditions throughout the South when Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of Adam's children, brought His divine power into play. He raised men to bring His children out of their troubles. In a little town of Pulaski, Tennessee, some of the leaders of Adam's children organized themselves for their recovery and the protection of their people. They met secretly and studied the Word of their Heavenly Father. Eventually they adopted a garment with the Cross of Christ on their breast. One also for their horses where the Cross of Christ was emblazoned on the left flank. Their membership grew quickly as their mission was to bring righteous government to the people.

Each one took an oath to uphold, defend and protect the Constitution of the United States of America and to uphold the Constitutional Republic which was established by their forefathers. They knew the law and declared that any legislation adopted by any legislative branch of the Federal government must be in accord with and in pursuance of the Constitution. They declared our Republican form of government a government of Law, not one of men and men's opinions. Any legislative act of the Federal government that was not in accord with the Constitution would not be recognized by them as "law". It would merely be legislation and unenforceable because it must be in accord with the Constitution to become "law". The legislators enacting such legislation outside the confines of the Constitution would be subject to arrest and removal from office for usurping powers not granted to them by the States or the people and for violation of their oath of office, which required them to uphold, defend and protect the constitution. Any act otherwise would be malfeasance and misfeasance in office and a criminal offence according to the statutes of the United States, which were enacted, from the Articles of Confederation and the Ordinance of the Territories. These had been adopted to be in effect “Forever” and this organic law had been enacted into statutes known as the “United States Code”.

After a time, the Enosh became afraid of the robed sons of Adam’s family. The Enosh were a very superstitious people and they were extremely ignorant. They believed that the robed Knights were ghosts of Confederate soldiers. It was this fear in many instances that kept the Enosh from committing crime and wrong doing. These people were so simple and ignorant that they knew not right from wrong. But they understood the punishment for wrong.

The Yehudi soon discovered that their old trick of infiltration and destruction from within was not effective with the organization formed by Adam’s children in the South. There were no traitors amongst the Knights and they carefully selected their members. But the Yehudi are children of Satan and possess all of his cunning and deceit. They decided to divide and conquer. They hired a group of paid agents who acquired some robes similar to those that had been worn by the Knights of the Invisible Empire. The groups of Yehudi agents were not recognizable because they wore masks. They wore the robes and went on raids, doing all manner of evil. They murdered the Enosh and attacked meetings of Adam’s children who were of the Catholic Faith. These evil activities were planned for the purpose of destroying the effectiveness and reputation of the Knights of the Invisible Empire. If the Yehudi could destroy the reputation amongst the people, they could make it very difficult for the organization to function efficiently.

This was an old trick of Satan’s and the Yehudi are experts in using Satan’s tricks. If they cannot destroy Adam’s family one way, they will use another. In many instances they will destroy their own possessions and make a hue and cry, blaming Adam’s children. In this manner, they keep their lesser brethren in constant fear and make them contribute more money for the evil works of the Yehudi leaders. They maintain large amounts of money in this manner, which supports their long range effort to bring Satan’s government to the land. They must keep Adam’s children on the defensive, and their brethren who are the children of Satan are kept in the dark. Yet, they do the works of their father the devil. Those of Adam’s family who assist them in their blindness are also doing Satan’s work, but they are unaware of the fact. It is too bad that so many of Adam’s children remain blind. When they receive the “light” of Yahweh, they become wise and no longer do they assist Satan’s children in their destruction of Adam’s family.

Chapter IX

The Midnight Hour

THE NATION OF GOD'S KINGDOM grew wealthier and wealthier as the years of darkness continued. These were the blessings that had been promised by their Heavenly Father. It was the promised protection from Satan's works. During the darkness the Yehudi had grown more powerful as each year passed. More and more of them had immigrated to the new nation from Eastern Europe, yet they remained to themselves and did not become a part of the way of life in the new nation. They contributed very little, but took much. The nation was wealthy in spite of all that the Yehudi and their international leaders could do.

It was during the year 1913 that the Yehudi leaders decided to make their big move toward final destruction of the new nation. The Yehudi leader in Holland had sent his personal representative to the new nation in 1902. This representative received a very large salary and used unlimited funds to accomplish his objectives. He could buy and sell men. With his unlimited finances he became a big name in the new nation and amongst its political and financial leaders. He bought and sold "politicians" of Adam's family. His mission was to establish a more tight control on the money of the new nation and upon its government. He actually wrote a new banking law for the nation and with his finances, prepared the way for its adoption by the Congress in 1913. Most of the good Congressmen were home for Christmas vacation when he sneaked the legislation into effect by his paid agents who had remained in the capitol to do his work. He took his agents in Congress to an island off the coast of Georgia and made the arrangements for adoption of the new banking laws, which would permit the Yehudi to have perpetual control of the new nation's money and credit. It would keep the nation in debt to the Yehudi as long as the Yehudi controlled the system. Passage of the legislation was in violation of the Constitution, but this did not matter to the Yehudi. The Constitution to them was simply a piece of paper. Just another contract that could be broken at will.

During this same year of 1913, the Yehudi organized a national organization to fit into their international scheme and to assist with internal destruction of the new nation. Its purpose was to maintain pressure on Satan's children. The excuse for its organization was deceitfully expressed as "brotherhood". This had always been the cry of Satan's children but it was used to deceive the family of Adam. It appealed to their righteousness but they were blind and didn't know the difference between themselves and Satan's children. The new Yehudi organization was instructed to use publicity, pressure, deceit, lies and all means of propaganda so that Adam's children would not know the truth. They spoke and wrote of "brotherhood", but of course their organization persecuted Adam's children and never intended for so-called "brotherhood" to exist in the way that they spoke of it. Jesus had made this clear to Adam's children but they refused to believe Him. Jesus had told His children that the Yehudi were hypocrites, speaking righteousness but not doing it. He had said that they were liars and told His children not to believe them.

Another objective of the Yehudi, which was accomplished in that fateful year of 1913, was the successful enactment of a "graduated" income tax on the children of Adam and their nation. The Yehudi and their agents had obtained passage of Federal Legislation on this graduated income tax many years before, but the Courts had declared it to be in violation of the Constitution. So, in 1913, with their control of the Federal legislature, the Yehudi arranged an amendment to the Constitution, which was given sufficient financial and political backing for its passage. This was their way of implementing their long range plans to bring Satan's form of government to the new nation. The Yehudi knew that if they could obtain passage of this amendment, Adam's children could eventually be brought to their knees. The central government could be gradually made all-powerful and could apply economic pressures on each individual citizen. It would bring all governmental power into one place where the Yehudi would have an easier time establishing their control. In spite of all these activities, the Yehudi were not satisfied. Their objective was a One World Government with all of Adam's children and the nations of Adam's household as their slaves. When this condition could be brought about by economic and political controls, the children of Satan could completely destroy the Creator's family on Earth and keep the Kingdom for their father Satan. In order to accomplish their long-range objectives, it was necessary to keep Adam's children fighting amongst themselves. This could attain several objectives at one time for the children of Satan. It could provide for Adam's children to destroy each other while the Yehudi sat back and manipulated the financial requirements. This would create greater financial burdens upon Adam's children and maintain the debt, while at the same time keeping the pressure off Satan and his children's evil works. It could aid the Yehudi in their financial control and lead to accomplishment of further destruction of Adam's family in due time.

The time was just before the midnight hour when the Yehudi decided to establish full control over a strategic land area of Europe, which had evaded them for many years. They planned a step-by-step destruction for Adam's people in all of their nations. The wealthy Yehudi and their agents in the new nation of God's Kingdom were used to finance the defeat of the strategic nation in Europe which was essential to completion of the overall victory for Satan's children. The nations of Adam's children had been played one against the other in a great war during the 1900's. This was accomplished by the Yehudi in order to place many nations of Adam's children under their financial control and in debt to finance the conflict. It also put brother to righting brother amongst Adam's family. Near the end of the conflict, the Yehudi in the new nation were in complete control of the government. They financed their agents and spies, sending a revolutionary leader to the European nation from the new nation of God's Kingdom.

They also sent great amounts of financial support with him. His objective was to start a revolution and murder the Christian leader of the nation and all of his family, taking the government for the Yehudi. The military intelligence officers of the nation of God's Kingdom who were the children of Adam's family were active in the European nation which the Yehudi were taking by revolution. One named Captain Montgomery Schuyler reported to the Chief of Staff of his expeditionary forces in Siberia in a secret military intelligence report. Amongst many details in his report he advised that all of the military officers of Adam's family had been murdered by the Bolsheviks. In the Black Sea Massacre it is stated that not less than eight thousand officers were murdered at Kronstadt, in the Gulf of Finland, between six and seven thousand were drowned at one time. He also reported that up to the end of 1918 things had been growing steadily worse in Russia ever since the first few months of the First Provisional Government, when for a short time it looked as if the new regime would be able to bring some form of modern government into the country. These hopes were frustrated by the gradual gains in power of the more irresponsible and socialistic elements of the population guided by the Jews and other anti-Russian races.

A table made in April 1918 by Robert Wilton, the correspondent of the London Times in Russia, shows that at that time there were 384 "commissars" including 2 negroes, 13 Russians, 15 264 had come to Russia from the United States since the downfall of the Imperial Government. In another report to Colonel Barrows, Captain Schuyler reported amongst other details as follows: "It is probably unwise to say this loudly in the United States but the Bolshevik movement is and has been since its beginning guided and controlled by Russian Jews of the greasiest type, who have been in the United States and there absorbed every one of the worst phases of our civilization without having the least understanding of what we really mean by liberty (I do not mean the use of the word liberty which has been so widespread in the United States since the war began, but the real word spelt the same way), and the real Russian realizes this and suspects that Americans think as do the loathsome specimens with whom he now comes in contact.

I have heard all sorts of estimates as to the real proportion of Bolsheviks to that of the population of Siberia and I think the most accurate is that of General Ivanov-Rinov who estimates it as two percent. There is hardly a peasant this side of the Urals who has the slightest interest in the Bolshevik or his doings except in so far as it concerns the loss of his own property and in fact, his point of view is very much like that of our own respectable farmers, when confronted with the IWW ideal. The conquest of the great landmass of Russia was essential to the long range of the Yehudi if they were to establish World Government under their control. From this base they could move East through Asia, West through Europe to the Atlantic. It would provide a great encirclement of the one nation of Adam's family that must be finally taken to complete the project. There had always been an area of difficulty for the Yehudi in Western Europe. This was due to a very strong nation of Adam's children, which had been a target of the Yehudi for many years. They had patiently and deceitfully arranged for the defeat of this nation at the hands of other nations of Adam's children who could be deceived by the internal agents of the Yehudi in their lands. The international financial and political controls, which the Yehudi had built up over many years, were employed for this objective.

The children of Satan successfully turned brother against brother to defeat this great Western European nation of God's people whom they feared. After its defeat they arranged for an economic boycott and destruction of its money. They also made arrangements for dividing the nation in pieces to maintain future division of its people and their Adamic brethren round about. After this feared nation was defeated, the Yehudi made their move upon the landmass of Russia. Their revolutionary agents were employed successfully. The government they formed was the same type as that which they had established in the old Jerusalem when they had invaded the land of Israel before the days of Jesus. It was the same form of government that Satan and his children had always used. It was always a government that would not recognize Yahweh, the Creator of the Universe who had come to Earth to save His Celestial family that descended from Adam. It would recognize no God but Satan. It was always under the control of those whom Jesus had identified as the children of Satan. Its objective has always been to destroy the Creator's family on Earth and the nations, which were promised to their father, thus thinking that they might keep the Kingdom for their father Satan. It is a government of deceit and dishonesty from its inception. How could it be otherwise when it is a government of Satan's children?

As the years passed on after the great war between the brother nations, the people of that feared Western European nation became strong again. The Heavenly Father was not to be denied, nor are His children. They had the spiritual vision and the knowledge given to His family since its arrival on Earth. This, Satan's children could not control or withhold. As the defeated nation became stronger, the Yehudi who had established their government in Russia used every effort to keep the people divided and weak.

This nation of people must be destroyed completely or the Yehudi could never conquer all of Western Europe for their final attack against the great nation of God's Kingdom across the seas. Satan's children planned to launch their attack from many directions at once. From the East across the Atlantic, from the Asiatic side coming across the Bering Straits and down the West Coast of the new nation, from an island bastion just South of the nation at its strategic "underbelly", from Mexico and from within the nation itself. The Yehudi chiefs laid plans to stir up the Enosh in the nation, promising them the lands, property and women of the men of the South who they feared and hated from the days of an earlier war. Although the children of Satan had made great headway, much work and more time was required to fulfil their long range plans.

They must break down the resistance of Adam's children as they had done in Russia. They must be wary and not make their final move until Adam's nations were weak and divided amongst themselves. The Yehudi spies and agents must be in positions of power within all governments of the nations of Adam's children and a super government must be established under Yehudi control. Adam's children must be deceitfully subjected to this super government where they could be out voted and controlled by the Enosh people who would participate in the super government. And a great new war must be brought into play where the nations of Adam's children can be brought into conflict amongst themselves to weaken and destroy them for the final take over.

The new war will give the Yehudi greater financial control because of the debt and economic chaos such conflict would bring to the nations of Adam's family. The major purpose of this interim conflict should be to completely destroy that nation of God's people in Western Europe who had always remained strong militarily and who had remained as a thorn in the side of Satan's children. Its strength would prevent the strategic control of the land area adjacent to the ocean gateway of the Atlantic. No attack could be made on the great new nation of Adam's family across the seas as long as this brother nation remained free and strong. This nation and its people must be destroyed and the Yehudi would destroy it by their age old method of deceit with no danger of Adam's children becoming aware of who is behind the scenes.

These intermediate objectives took long and effective planning with the placing of "stooges", spies and paid agents in proper places within the governments. These were to bring about events which would lead to the war. It was the "Midnight Hour" of which the Prophets had spoken and written. Satan knew that his time was limited and that he must do his work before the dawn of daylight when the Creator's children would awaken and destroy him and his children as they had been told to do by their Heavenly Father. Satan had to work fast in terms of "time", which is the measurement of motion. The nation which he must destroy in Western Europe was awakening to the deceitful work of his children within its borders. They were doing the same works as those which had caused them to be banished from other nations of Adam's family in the past.

Yet, this time, they were being directed more closely and were laying the foundations for the destruction of that nation. They worked closely with the children of Satan who controlled the Satanic government to the East and once again Satan's children, the Yehudi were the advance guard for the invasion of Western Europe as they had been in the days of the Mongol hordes of Genghis Khan. This time they were trickier.

They had timed their plans well. Why should they fight these good fighters of Adam's family who were God's battle-axe? Why not arrange for the stupid Goyim's brothers to do the job? With their financial and political control well established in the nations of Adam's family, it would be an easy matter to turn brother against brother once more. Satan's children had always succeeded in this objective in the past, so why not again? So they did. They used every means available, the press, the radio and motion pictures to distribute propaganda against the nation in Western Europe, which they feared. They sent spies and agents to the great nation across the seas, which they planned to control for the success of their future World Government.

They planned once more to use the great nation of God's Kingdom and its tremendous wealth to destroy an intermediate barrier to their future final objective. Before the final blow could be arranged it was necessary that the Yehudi establish a strong position within the government of the new nation across the seas. The children of Adam who were virtual slaves in that land were opposing Satan's form of government in the landmass of Russia. The Yehudi leaders ordered the mass murder of over seventy million of Adam's children in the Ukraine. While performing these atrocities, they always murdered a few of their own lesser brethren in order to confuse the issue and hide their deceit. They were in a position to make big news about the few lesser Yehudi they had disposed of and this made it difficult to fix responsibility for the crimes. The Yehudi criminals have a slang expression for this procedure.

They call it a "cleanup" or a "whitewash". They arrange for one of their criminal element to be attacked, but seldom seriously injured. Of course it would then be silly to think that the Yehudi themselves were involved. In serious projects of great importance, they think nothing of eliminating some lesser Yehudi to provide the confusion as to the guilty party. It is a typical trick of Satan's children. It was employed effectively in the destruction of Adam's children in the land of Russia. It is always used to deceive law enforcement officials and relieve pressure from Yehudi leaders. The atrocities were not completely hidden in Russia and the slave state did not produce what had been expected. The reputation of the government was falling and losing the standing amongst other nations that the Yehudi had planned. Because of these failures, it became necessary for Satan's children to use the reputation and support of the great new nation across the seas.

Their agents had infiltrated into the new nation's government and were immediately put to work. The moneyed Yehudi in the new nation were told what to do and what to support financially. It was an easy task for them because they had become advisors to the highest government officials in the land. They employed every means at their disposal to lay the groundwork for their top agent to reach the new nation's leader. This leader was easily duped because he had received the financial and political support of the Yehudi leaders in his nation for many years. He was beholden to them both financially and politically. The meeting with the Yehudi ambassador was held secretly. The next day, the leader of the new nation announced that the government of Satan's children was to be officially recognized by the government of Adam's children. He made certain agreements, receiving promises that Satan's form of government would not be brought to the young nation's land, but he was just as sound asleep as all of Adam's families were to the deceitful ways of Satan and his children.

They promised anything and everything, with no intention of keeping any of their promises. The end justified the means. So, in this manner, Yehudi spies and agents were able to effectively infiltrate the new land. They came as trade specialists and as diplomats. They used the prestige and power of God's children and His nation to further deceive other nations of God's children. These good nations wondered if their brethren of the young nation knew what they were doing. The Yehudi knew that if the government of Satan's children could obtain recognition, then the people of Adam's family who were in slave camps might give up hope for freedom or assistance from their brothers in the flesh, and be less troublesome to the Yehudi. It was necessary to break the resistance to Satan in the nations of Adam's family who lived closer to the land where Satan's government held sway. This was convenient to the long range plan of the Yehudi leaders and it was a necessary part of their plan. Satan's children always kept a bag of tricks at hand and one of the tricks is to pose as very devout persons, while secretly planning to destroy the children of God's Kingdom and their works on Earth.

The long-range plans of the Yehudi were always laid with phases and objectives. If delays occurred, it was only the timing, which was affected. If minor defeats or obstacles came unexpectedly, the Yehudi were always in a position to withdraw for a time and then arrange their recovery to advance from the position they had reached up to that point in time. It was with this method that they laid plans for the destruction and capture of the nation of Yahweh's Kingdom and the children of Adam.

The economic plans provided for complete control of the nation's money as well as the money of other nations of Adam's children. One nation could be played against another. In this way, the power of money and gold, which had been in their hands for many centuries, could be used to arrange situations and conditions where Adam's children could destroy one another in planned conflicts. Even though a few lesser Yehudi were to be lost in these conflicts, it made no difference to the Yehudi leaders so long as their overall objectives were reached. For this reason it was essential that the money of the wealthy new nation be controlled.

The leader of the new nation was used to accomplish this result. Chief agents of the Yehudi advised him and in this manner they could deceive him as well as the nations of the entire world. They had no fear of the majority of Adam's children because the majority could always be led by agents provocateur and scalawags in the employ of the Yehudi. The majority had always been wrong because of their blindness that the Heavenly Father had placed upon them many hundreds of years prior to the time He came to Earth to save them. He had set the time in the latter days when He would take the blindness off His people and that time has not arrived as yet. Satan and his children have been very much aware of the blindness upon the part of Adam's children and take advantage of it constantly.

During the hours of darkness the leader of the new nation had been induced by the Yehudi to stop the production of gold in his nation. He induced Congress to pass unlawful legislation, which would prohibit his people from owning the precious metals that had been used as a basis for their medium of exchange under Satan's money system for many years. This, along with the banking system that the Yehudi controlled, permitted completion of arrangements for a large war between the nations of Adam's children and the destruction of the one nation in the old land that would otherwise stop Satan's children from their objectives. It was a nation of Adam's children in close proximity to the nation that the Yehudi had invaded and stolen. It was a nation of strong people, dedicated to their Heavenly Father and the teachings of Yahweh. According to the Yehudi plans, these people must be destroyed. They were the only children of Adam capable of upsetting plans of the Yehudi to place Satan's government in control of the entire world. The new nation across the seas could not be taken unless the spies and agents of the Yehudi could penetrate and invade the land. This they did during the days of the great conflict.

Many children of Adam's family in that older nation which had engendered the hate of Satan's children were killed by the air bombardments from their brethren across the seas. The bodies of these dead were disposed of by burning in large ovens and by mass burial. Here again was an opportunity for the Yehudi to use Satan's trick of the "big lie". The Yehudi claimed publicly that the burned bodies were those of the Yehudi. This was a "big lie" as the Yehudi criminals had stolen into the new nation across the seas on troop ships that had brought its soldiers to the old land. The invading Yehudi called themselves refugees and came to the new nation unlawfully. They called themselves by other nationalities, which were of Adam's family when in reality they were the children of Satan.

They came in great numbers and were assisted by the Yehudi who were already living in the new nation. They were the advance guard of Satan's government who came to prepare the way and to take over the new nation just as they had been the advance guard and the agents who prepared the way for the invasion of another land by the hordes of Ghengis Khan, the Mongol who was their brother of the flesh. Their agents in high places within the government of the new nation had laid plans for the financial condition of the invading Yehudi. They were to be provided with unlimited funds. One of their agents had wormed his way into the Treasury Department. This agent, along with one of Adam's children who had been in the employ of the Yehudi, sent the plates of the nation's money to their comrades in the old land during the conflict.

The money was printed by Satan's government and was placed in the hands of the Yehudi who were to invade the new nation as refugees. In this manner they were wealthy upon their arrival and could buy all that they might need, including land, apartment houses, motels, businesses of all kinds and even social position.

After the great conflict had accomplished results desired for the long-range plans of the Yehudi, the next step was to destroy the internal government of the invaded land. The Constitution was to be scrapped. Education was to be changed. The Enosh in the new nation were to be employed against Adam's children and the Yehudi revenge against the men of the South would be completed. With approximately six million agents who had invaded the land during the great conflict, pressure was applied to remove certain information from the next census that would be taken. The data was removed because if it were included in the census it would reveal that the six million Yehudi who were claimed to have been murdered in the old land were now in the new nation.

Their presence was not in accord with the immigration laws of the nation and they would be subject to deportation if discovered. Their "big lie" would then be exposed because many children of Adam's family were awakening. They were becoming aware of the deceit and evil of the Yehudi in their land. They were becoming more and more suspicious as the Yehudi revealed himself as a supporter of Satan's form of government. The Yehudi leaders feared prosecution and banishment from the land as had occurred in the past in other nations of Adam's family.

They used every means to prevent their exposure. The press and newspapers, the radio, the television and all means of mass communication, which they controlled. In spite of this, Adam's children were to remember the Word of Yahweh who said, "By their works ye shall know them."

The Yehudi leaders had promised the Enosh all of that land known as the Southern States of the new nation. They promised to give them control of the government and the rule over Adam's children in that land. Every effort was made to advance the Enosh to high positions in the land. They were to be helped by the Yehudi in the entertainment business and be pushed ahead in every phase of the business world that was under Yehudi control. They were to be organized by the Yehudi and be agitated against Adam's children to cause trouble and disorder throughout the land.

The Enosh were to be employed as the frontline troops against Adam's children while the Yehudi sat back in the tall grass out of danger. The disorders were planned to assist in the emergency type government which would be necessary to the complete take over of the land mass of Russia. It was to be coordinated with their take over of the high places in the government. Their control was so extensive that they could play both ends against the middle and have their man in any high political office they desired. It has always been the plan of Satan and his children to concentrate governmental power at one source. With this accomplished, it has been easier to steal the central thus they had to destroy the State governments and pull all power into one location.

Their long range plans had been laid well. Many years had been employed to bring about a gradual centralization of governmental power. There was one weakness in the plans which worried Satan's children. This was the resistance of strong men of Adam's family in the South. The Southern States must be destroyed. The plan was to destroy the South along with the destruction of the States' governments and the Constitution, hitting several birds with one stone and providing a means for confusion as to vital issues. The already concentrated power of the Yehudi and their agents could be used for these purposes. It would be started by stirring up the Enosh and demanding that they be put in the same schools with Adam's young children in the Southern States. In this manner the Enosh could be used to eventually destroy the Holy seed. The Yehudi chiefs knew that Adam's family in the Southern States would resist. Their degree of resistance would offer an opportunity to evaluate the advancement of Satan's plans.

It would also provide an opportunity to smear and harm the reputation of an old enemy, the sons of those men in the South who had nearly upset Satan's plans during the early years of the Republic. This early antagonism had never been forgiven by Satan's children and Satan was determined to make these Sons of God pay for their earlier stubbornness and resistance. His plans provided for using Adam's blind children against their brethren as Satan had always done before. His paid agents were on the job and the degree of centralized power that had already been established up to this point needed testing. Here in the South was the place to put it to a test. The children of Satan had always been cautious. They wanted to know when to run. They knew that they could go only so far with the children of Adam at each step. If they were to proceed too far in any one step the flesh of Adam's children would become red with anger.

The wrath of their countenance would appear and they would become God's "battle-axe" as He had foretold. This was the time, the midnight hour had passed. The darkness of the night would slowly disappear and the daylight hours were near. At what exact hour the daylight would strike, no one knew except the Creator. Each hour of suffering in the darkness would bring Adam's children closer to the time when they would all see the light. When that daylight hour struck, Satan's children would all be revealed. The children of Light would then do the works of their Heavenly Father. He would return to the Earth and bring His Kingdom with Him. Every knee would bend, every head would bow and every tongue would proclaim Him King. Yahweh, the King of the Universe would bring His government to Earth because Adam's children of the flesh would have seen the "light" and would have done their work, which He had sent them to Earth to do. The blindness would be off them and they would know that they were the Sons and Daughters of the living God.

Their nation had performed its divine mission. It would have provided the sons and daughters of the Most High who remain and occupy the Earth, being His "battle-axe" to resist Satan until His second coming. They would have cleansed their land of Satan's children and all "sin" which is the evil power of their God's evil enemy. Only Adam's children would then occupy their land, as they had been told to do from the beginning. Many of Satan's children would be crying "peace, peace", but there would be no peace.

Many of Adam's blind children would repeat the cry for "peace, peace", not knowing that it is the cry of Satan to deceive Adam's children and their nation. Satan and his children only desire the kind of "peace" that would lead to the destruction of Yahweh and His family on Earth. It is only for Adam's children to revive the word of their Father and realize that they will not have peace until they have destroyed Satan's children as they have been ordained and instructed to do. They would suddenly realize that they have been waiting for the Heavenly Father to do the things that He had sent them into the Earth to do in His Name. They have a legal "power of attorney" a written authority to act in His Name. They were told to be His "battle-axe" and to fight Satan on Earth. They are to occupy the Earth and rule in righteousness with Him at the head of their government. Until this is done, no peace with Satan can be obtained. It has been fore ordained that victory is to be theirs but they must be brave enough to "fight" and shed their blood in sacrifice if necessary. When they do that, Victory is theirs!
