

MELANIE PHILLIPS

In an interview during March 2020, Melanie Phillips a regular columnist for the Guardian newspaper admitted that the entire Western establishment set out in 1945, to destroy the European nations, their culture, traditions, beliefs, Christian religion, and white race. Mrs Phillips also contributed to this destruction programme through her journalism. Frank Soskin an Eastern European communist Jew introduced into parliament the first “Race Relations Act. This imposition was used to silence white Europeans while their nations were being destroyed. This was followed by the “anti-Semitism laws which put Jews above criticism now matter how evil their activities. Only white Europeans have to suffer these diabolical rules which prevented the best of our people from gaining influential jobs. In December 2019 Zionist MP’s began to brag how they prevented the most honest, knowledgeable and capable of our people from becoming MP’s.

To lower Britain’s position in the world soon after the end of Second-World-War parliament moved the UK’s manufacturing industry to the Far East. It put cancer and mind damaging fluoride into the water supply and sabotaged our farming industry by forcing farmers to remove the hedgerows. Without the insects that fed on the pests that ate the crops, they were immediately ravaged. From that time farmers have relied on poisonous chemicals to kill the pests that attack the crops.

EXTRACTS FROM MELANIE PHILLIPS INTERVIEW

There has been a kind of cultural-revolution since 1945, that I think it had its roots in the war. It took place in the heart of Europe where it delivered a seismic shock. This is what reason did, this is what the West did this is what being a nation did – all became toxic and tainted – a cultural demoralisation. It became a method for people who wanted to change society completely. They undermined the traditional family and led a Marxist attack upon education and claimed our culture to be intrinsically rotten. The public came to accept lies as truth. Biblical morality went out of the window as they claimed it was a grotesque intrusion into personal freedom.

The people who wanted to make destructive changes were linked to the holocaust (Jews.) Many of them were revolutionary Marxists who said the West did this, capitalism and nationalism did that. The West at the time was demoralised and was receptive to overturning the basic tenants of Western civilisation and the very idea of the Western nation state.

In came man made morality that could not brook any opposition because they were all designed to better humanity. My feelings and emotions are more important than any facts. They accepted lies as truth consequently if someone says the West didn’t invent slavery - everyone had slavery at one time. Britain and America were the pioneers in getting rid of it. Although this was a historical fact it goes against the ideology which says white people are intrinsically bad. So those truths could not be identified as facts and anyone who claimed them would be identified as racists. Anyone who opposed our new masters had to be shot down as evil. They are no longer burnt at the stake but they are prevented from addressing the public, denied a place in parliament and blocked from having a good job.

They are maligned as heretics and never allowed to publicly oppose the satanic new world order that the Jewish Melanie Phillips enthusiastically worked for up until recently. Of course the word racist was introduced by Jews as a way of silencing Europeans. For many decades it has been a criminal offence to use it like telling the truth about Jews. This Melanie Phillips interview releases us all from the diabolical Jewish laws that they should never have been allowed to introduce.

Parliament relied on African immigrants to introduce a drug problem and has done its utmost to ensure that it spread and has made no attempt to overcome it. In fact along with perversion it is widely engaged in by many MP’s, some even saying whether you use drugs or not it is just a lifestyle choice. Murder and rape by immigrants has become a common problem that parliament is pleased to see. Most of our senior MP’s and every Prime Minister since Winston Churchill in 1945 has been a Zionist doing their utmost to destroy the British nation.

Going back to Melanie Phillips interview, most British servicemen who fought seldom mentioned the war. They were mentally numbed and didn’t want to think about it. This is just what our common enemy wanted so they could start their nation state destruction. This ended with the mass non-white alien invasion to get us outnumbered, so we would not be able to get our country back through the ballot box.
