HOW THE SELF-PROFESSED, MIGHTY HAVE FALLEN

Decent people, particularly committed Christians, oppose the idea of same sex marriages. Such notions would have been unspeakable a mere twelve years ago. Here under a New Labour government, with the help of a phoney Conservative Party, something that is an affront to a civilised and moral society has become a reality.

Registrar Lillian Ladele

Black African, Registrar Lillian Ladele refused to marry "gay" couples, saying it was against her Christian principles. For doing what any right-minded person would do she was summonsed to appear in court. On her appeal "Lord" Neuberger, the Master of the Rolls, told Lillian Ladele that she had to stifle her religious principles to perform what she regarded as gay-marriage or give up her job. In conclusion it was stated that Labour's 2007 "Sexual Orientation Act" (Satanism) had trumped the right of religious beliefs (Christianity).

Among those taking a stand against the rising tide of anti-Christ legislation are many black Africans living in the UK. When explorers first discovered African tribes, (not that long ago), they found them living in mud huts following a primitive lifestyle that had not changed for a thousand years. Much to their credit many Africans who have come to the West have adapted and learnt the skills required to sustain an advanced 21st century society.

The wretched Lord Neuberger on the other hand comes from what is described as a Jewish Academic family. (This is a euphemism for a Marxist cell.) Neuberger rose rapidly in the ranks of the political wing of Labour's legal prosecutors. Before entering the "stasi"-style legal profession, Neuberger had worked for N M Rothschild bankers, where he would have been schooled in "one -world, Anti-Christ politics".

The Neuberger clan claim to be God's people, who due to their high moral code, should be allowed to rule over all nations. How the mighty seem to have fallen when you compare Neuberger with Lillian Ladele. On reflection though, during the past 2,000 years or so what have the self chosen actually given us? Marxism, usury, the Atom bomb, Communism, the race relations acts (which were designed as part of a genocide programme), an anti-culture offered to the young, pornography, unnecessary wars and regime-changes to steal countries. We definitely need to re-evaluate the races.

The oppressive divisive and tyrannical "equality" laws which Lord Neuberger says must be obeyed, were not drafted by British, or even, European Christians, but by his fellow partner-in-crime socialists. With major world problems escalating daily there is an urgent need to re-evaluate the races and insist that all nations take control of their own countries.
