ISRAELI FANATICS ARE

ñBREAKING THE INFRASTRUCTURE OF NATION STATESò

On the 21st July 2013, BBC2 transmitted a programme about the mysterious and clandestine life of Uri Geller. For thirty years he had been working as a spy for military and intelligence agencies in three continents. Psychic Mr Geller and his associates were careful not to give away any information about their activities that hadnôt already been discovered. However, a sentence they used, ñbreaking the infrastructure of nation statesò, is very revealing. In practice, it has meant, replacing the leaders of countries with their own agents. It is this kind of activity that has allowed financiers, world-government groups, Zionists and Mossad to secretly take control of country after country and then run them to destruction.

Throughout the television programme it was made clear that the subterfuge, intrigue, surveillance and State interference which are blighting peopleôs lives worldwide are being carried out for the benefit of Israel. If religious Jews, rather than Zionists, had taken control of Israel in 1948, todayôs problems would not have arisen. Former Jewish leader Theodore Hertzl once said "All people are treated in accordance with the manner in which they behave." If the Israeli government were to understand the meaning of these words, it would stop being belligerent, covetous, hateful and vindictive to others. Then, all nations could live in peaceful co-operation. Zionist domination of American politics has been widely recognised for many years, thus we have the saying ñIsrael is the tail that wags the dog called America.ò

Today few nations are free! Most were sold into slavery by their stupid, weak and immoral leaders who gave into Rothschildôs bribery and intimidation. The public know little or nothing about elected main party candidates when they are given the most important jobs. They donôt know how they think, who they have entered into pacts with or what sinister organisations they belong to. Political leaders are installed on blind trust. After four or five years the public begin to detest them and canôt remove them fast enough. Then voters, brainwashed and manipulated by the Zionist-controlled mass media elect one of the main parties that they were desperate to get rid of a short time before. How ridiculous is it that Prime and cabinet ministers are the only jobs that need no qualifications? There holds the clue that they donôt make important decisions but only follow orders. Which is why, when the other major party comes back into power there is no visible change.

As a result each year new laws are passed further curtailing freedom of speech, thought and action. Does it not seem strange that Europeans in particular are denied such basic rights; while laws of anti-Semitism place this most politically-active group above criticism? No one ever unfairly judges Jews on their race or religion. Only ever for their monstrous actions! Have you ever wondered how they were able to put themselves in such a dominant position over their host nations?

We have all seen how telling the truth has become a long-term jailing offence. It is vital that we all join the fight against the tyranny, called democracy, to regain sanity, justice and freedom.
